Senior Class Dedication

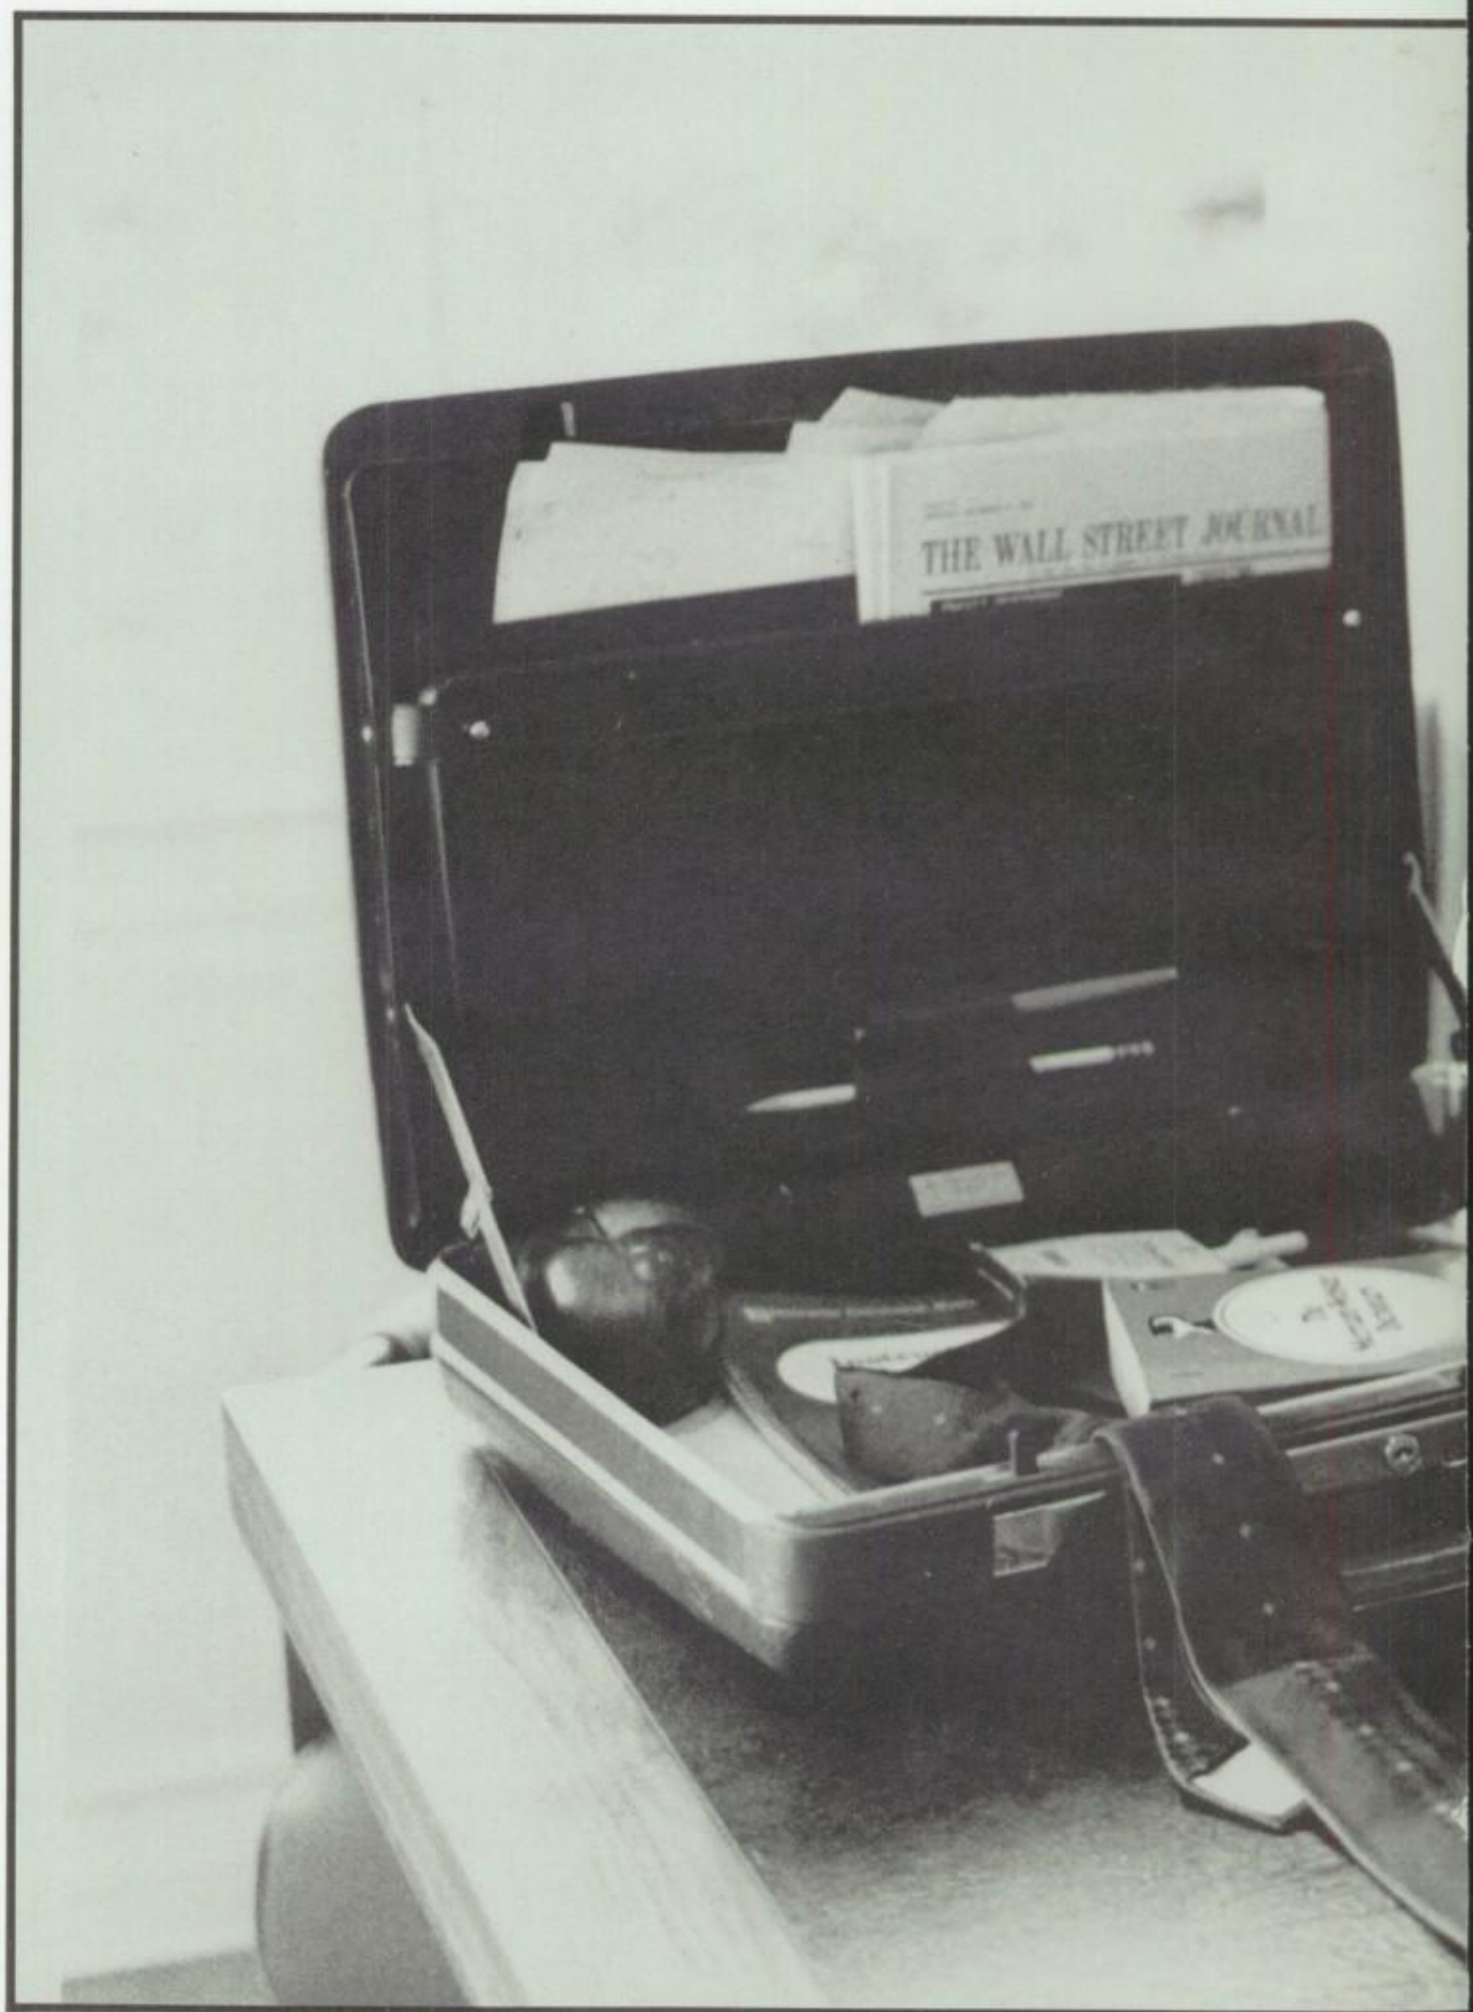

Since her arrival in 1975, Dagmar Zelinkas has provided the students at the Brentwood School with the constructive and gentle helping hand which has allowed each individual to discover and express the art within him or her. We present to you the lady fondly known as "Miss Z". What makes her so extra-special, though, is her concern for and sensitivity to the overall well-being of each student she encounters in her class. Teacher, motivator, mentor, counselor, friend — an outstanding human being. To show our gratitude for her many contributions to our lives, the Senior class proudly and lovingly dedicates the 1983-1984 AERIE to Dagmar Zelinkas.

Payman & Valentina — we've been through 17 years of Heaven & Hell.
I am forever grateful of your company.
(A flower in the corner of your face.)

Faryan: Four years for you, six years for me, hey we're almost free! ... 10 minute pots ... Die deutsche Madchen ... She wants to see my I.D., eh? Was du nicht sagst ... Ich habe Zeit verloren — (Who doesn't?) ... South Africa ... Pink Floyd ... "In through the out door" ... soccer ... the list goes on — Thanks for your friendship over the years. Jay: Wie hoch bist du? — standing on water ... "Take the long way home," ... does your dog bite? ... It's all logical ... Es geht ... "Lets have some potato salad." O.K. ... M. Twain's 'word of words,' — "Mekkamusel mannemassen menchen moerder mohren mutter marmor monumen tenmacher!" Warren: "Have you heard of Dr. John?" — "Yea" — "!!!!" ... Supertramp concert ... changing the tire ... The beach ... "What book are you reading?" — "Webster's dictionary." "You're too cool. Comrades Lee & george: Test-tube babies ... the tower ... the Island ... "Richard III is innocent." ... fencing in the library. Ed — Crespi: soccer ... good stuff ... "Did you finish the English paper?" — "What paper?" — have fun in Florida. To all prisoners in Brenwood: lots a' luck. Mrs. Wallace, Dunn, and Crittenden: You have taught me more than I could understand. I sincerely thank you. Mrs. Dunn — for the last time, no I do not knit. Mr. Shibs — Thanks for having diverted my attention from anything that has to do with Biology. Well, almost anything. Miss Huchel — thanks for all the unexcused tardy slips, detentions, etc. ... Fraulein Hann — Es ist gut to know some Deutsch, esp. when nobody else does. Heute Brentwood, Morgen die Welt! Mr. Knight, Mrs. Z, Chin, Balak, King, & Sioshansky: thanks for your extreme patience.

"Time to go ... "

Faryon Afifi

Poppin' wheelies at 8.

MOM and DAD — Whatever success I achieve from now on I owe to you. You have tutored yourselves beyond the call of duty and I will forever appreciate it. These last few years have been really tough on both of you. I just hope the future will be much more promising. From now on try to enjoy yourselves. Very "Motshaker."

LAYAN — Living with you has taught me a tremendous amount. All that aside, however, I just want to tell you that I really love you when you are your own sweet self. At other times, what can I say? If you just get over Duran Duran, I know you'll be alright. I also know my going to college will help you. We had lots of good times, thank you, and I wish you the best.

FRIENDS — To all of you ... our relationships have been invaluable to me.

RAMIN — These last 4 years together have certainly been rich with memories ... lunch times, art, Jay, retreat, soccer, this is one relationship that I hope will never end. Thank you for all the great times.

PAUL — We got better acquainted this year and you cracked me up more times than anyone else. Pretty soon Rodney will be doing imitations of you. Mulholland was great. Hang in there.

NOYAN — We've been through so much together that it boggles my mind to think about it. They certainly have been interesting, though — all those trips to ... everywhere, playing every spot imaginable, tennis being the latest. It's been an intense relationship, but looks like we will go our separate ways now. I'll never forget all these times, thanks and take it easy.

Mom and Dad Good old days/now.

DIDLIBUSH — 5 years, not bad, huh? Tennis, Geo with Bland, Dr. Thu, and 3 years of English straight. What can I say, you have been a valuable friend who can take a joke as well as make one. The best of luck.

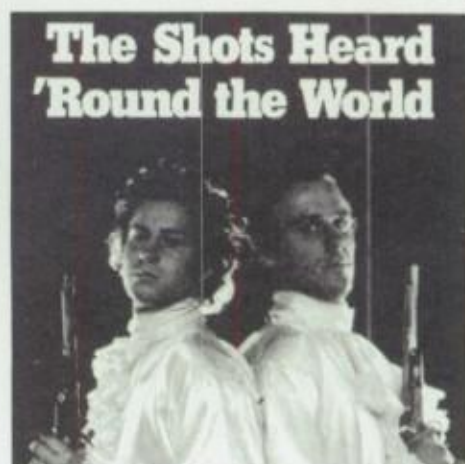

ADAM — Hey dude, play that guitar. Remember US '83. We almost had a ball if it weren't for the cows in the freeway. How 'bout Mulholland this year? It certainly has been enjoyable and I hope it continues. Best of luck in Berkeley.

SEAN — Having English with you is now a habit. We've had some great times together, like ... Podface (ooh that smell), A.P. English, and Bland. It's been heaven and hell, but it has been interesting with you right there. I really appreciate your friendship these last 5 years. Keep playing tennis.

From here to eternity (tennis)

Persistence

Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not. Genius will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent. The slogan "press on" has solved the problems of the human race.

— Calvin Coolidge

Kelly,

You truly understand me. Sometimes I don't know what I would do without you. We always manage to have fun whether it be going out dancing, or sitting home drinking tea and eating artichoke. I guess that's what best friends are for.

Edmee,

We've known each other forever. I will always cherish our very special friendship.

Mom and Dad,
Thank you for all of your love and support throughout the years. I love you.

Dawn Carlsberg

Mom and Dad: There is nothing I could say that would fully express all the love I have for you. Thank you for allowing me to discover myself.

Becky and David: I love you!

Mike and Erica: You are the best friends a girl could have. Your craziness helps keep me sane.

All the special people in my life: I cherish the memories.

Kris Christmas

Mom you are the most important person in my life. You've been through alot, but you are still strong. Without you I am lost . . . I will succeed just for you. I love you with all my heart.

Linda — you have been a great help during my education, you've guided me through. Thanx I love you.
Gail — you were there when I needed to talk about ANYTHING!!! you are a wonderful sister. I love you.

Pookie, Shayla, and Christopher (great name) — you guys are the best nephews and niece one could ever have. I LOVE YOU ALL.

Myra, Janine, Kat, Ben, and Detrol — you guys are always jamin' We'll be together forever!!!! Love you all!!!! (no memories because they wouldn't understand)

Dear God — I thank you for watching over me and keeping me and my family safe and secure.

Dad — you weren't here to see me through, but I would have made you proud. My God keep you. I love sooo much.

Mr. V and Mrs. King — when I first met you at Willowbrook I was delighted. Words cannot express how helpful and kind you are. You gave me a chance to succeed. I will remember you always. Mrs. Z. — you gave me patience and you were very understanding. Love ya!!!!

Lia — We've made it! We had some pretty hard times and I mean Hard. But we still a jmin'. Thankx for your support. Love Ya always. Is it the weekend yet? . . . shut up Andy . . . Pali . . . Promise to never get serious with a boy (young MAN) . . . Tony always another chance . . . Michael forever (yea right) . . .

Robert we're going to get her . . . Farin too much body . . . still no music . . . missing out . . . out of place . . . too false for me . . . now ALEX FOREVER Tania — you are truley a good friend. You made me laugh when I was sad. Tan Tan you are the best. Love ya always. Any college visits during A track . . .

Special Thankx to — Dr. Belt, Mrs. Crittenden, Mrs. Balak, Ms. Huchel, Mr. Knight, Mrs. Dunn, Mr. Gibson, Mrs. McIntyre, Mr. Loy, The Nestor Ave Block Club esp. Mrs. McDonald.

Peter Corrigan

Mom, Dad, Eliz: Thanks for your support throughout my school years.

Chris, a.k.a. Sir Gow of Bow, or the Count of Monte Gow Bow: Hey buddy, this is my buddy tag. Thanks for being such a great friend for the past 9 (?) years. Your bizarre sense of humor had made life easier.

Rocky: You are a great friend. Despite what you think, Monty Python rules. By the way, it doesn't really matter if you don't land on the runway.

It's Peter, Paul, and (oops!) Rocky

Paul: You have been a great friend. Here's a warning, you have to be more careful where you imitate Gibson. By the way, are we going to lunch Friday?

Sean, Steve, Greg, David, Kenneth, Adam, Faryan, and the rest of my friends: thanks for being such good friends.

PRAYER FOR PEACE

*L*ORD, make me an instrument of Your Peace

Where there is hatred,
let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may seek not so much to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love;
for it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in doing that we are born to Eternal Life.
Amen.

To:

Mom: Of the many people that I have been in contact with during my life, you have had the greatest impact on the finished (though at times apparently defective) product. I am forever indebted to you. Furthermore, I will do everything that I said I was going to do. I hope that the problems that were caused by me did not cause you to go nutty, as you have so often vehemently insisted. Concerning my life: I intend to outdo everything that all my ancestors did, combined. I'm sure that I will even outdo your high expectations. I love you always.

Dad: I am proud to be your son. I hope to make you as proud that I am your son as I am proud that you are my father. You command my deepest respect and admiration.

Ian: My little brother. Even though we were constantly at each other's throats, I don't really know what I will do without you. Maybe the fond memories of our outings together on the train in England will be able to comfort me. Had you not been born, I would be a very different person. Keep working on the schoolwork, and start thinking now what you want to do with your life. In the end, your personality and a little bit of hard work will bring you through. Good Luck forever!!!

Barney: Outside of my immediate family, you have had the most important single influence in shaping the final product. I have learnt much from you. But the most important single aspect of my life that you have affected is your showing me, even if subconsciously, what gentlemanly honor. To say the least, you are an extraordinary person. Also, the hunting trip is still on.

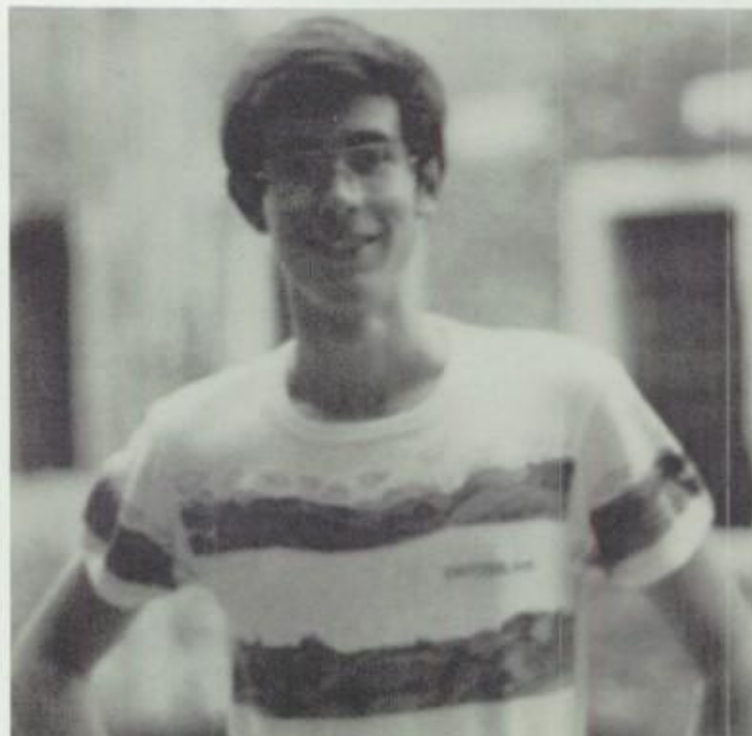

Josh: You have been a true friend. Even though we have grown apart a little because of our not having any classes together. Don't go to Harvard. It's not your type of school. Go to Caltech. That's your place. I expect to eventually read about you one morning on the front page of the L.A. Times! Nothing less. MEMS: Olaf Cranmersojn, "No more of this cacata carta," "Bubba-Boofoo Hutson," "Iulius Caesar est gaius," Bogle's 4 hour finals, Hsoj Namleh, Eel Remnarc, and, finally, "You can do that with a computer!!!"

Mrs. Ball: Vini, vidi, vici!

Mr. Hutson: You are a most amazing teacher. Your talent, unlike the hair on your h--d, is very copious. One day you will be "discovered," for you are a very capable stand-up comedian. I'm just glad that I discovered your ability way back in 7th grade. Your talent to make me laugh has brightened many an otherwise boring day. As a lasting token of appreciation, I am going to give you some ammunition to shoot back at Dr. M. when he attacks your integrity. At one point last year, the Brentwood Students' Liberation Army was seriously considering "defoliating" Dr. M. in a 3 A.M. raid. Unfortunately, Dr. M. canceled our wakeup call, and his mustache therefore remained "holy." Well, that's life. Keep the jokes coming.

Dr. M. and Chris M.: An extraordinary history class. I feel that I gained a true appreciation for U.S. History. I still have my notes, and intend to use them when and if I take the A.P. U.S. History test. M.U.N. has been fun. The B.S.L.A. will strike back this year, so watch it. (I just hope that Mr. Basmagian doesn't come along. He would present definite tactical problems). Get better fast, Chris. You have to get that B.S. in Microbiology. Good luck to both of you. It's been a tremendous experience. Grazie for the memories.

George: Though we have only gotten to know one another well during the past 2 years, I have discovered that you are a true friend. You have qualities that I rarely found in other people that I have dealt with. You are loyal, and willing to go out and have a new experience in the world at large (or under the world at large, as the case might be) You are also a true adventurer. My advice to you: use college as an instrument to permit you to see the world.

Don't settle down until you have seen the most exotic sights that the world can show you. I am confident that you will lead a very interesting life. MEMS: "I would hardly call that light touching," "Down into the bowels of the earth," "I got some supplies from the kitchen," "Kraus is takin' out another expedition," "Is the latest Paris Match in?" and "This jacket is soooo cool, you will go out of your mind." Good luck George. B.S.L.A. forever!

Bill: Keep up the good work at the big LACC. You will come though, as always. The trip to England in '85 is still on. Dr. Who lives!!!

Ms. Huchel: Despite what your detractors say, you are an outstanding person. I am glad that I've gotten to know you well over the past two years, and I hope that we never lose that friendship.

Dr. Belt: Probably the most unusual and popular teacher in Brentwood School. I have tremendously enjoyed your class over the past year. You are the epitome of the true doctor. I hope to be able, at least to a small extent, to emulate your success. All that I can really say about you can be summarized in an English, lower-class compliment (which is traditionally accompanied by a drink, but I, unfortunately, am underage at the moment, and therefore can't offer you a drink.). "You are a gentleman and a scholar." Good Luck always!!!

Liverpool: Beautiful city on the River Mersey, I long to return to you. When introduced to you at the age of 11, I discovered an unusual place, full of the idiosyncrasies that accompany any 500-year old seaport. I shall return to you once again.

Everyone else not mentioned: I thank you for making my experiences at Brentwood as enjoyable as they were. I hope to be able to impress you all with what I do with my life. Memories of 17.8794 years of life (As of May 1, 1984): Graduating from Grade 6; my train set; Liverpool; British Rail; getting a little brother; homework; 125 South Swall Drive; Horace Mann Elementary School; Canyon School; Mrs. Grave's class; Mrs. Niemer's Class; Mrs. Chalk's class; Mrs. Whitaker's class; Mrs. Atwood's class; Mrs. Bickle's class; Mrs. Lahr's class; fire engines; airplanes; U.S.S. Missouri; Heathrow Airport at 6:30 A.M.; Scotland; "The road for a bus and a bicycle;" "Mr. Hutson's jokes; the Groovey Movie; Bishop, Calif.; Snow!!!; The National Railway Museum at York; Spanish girls; It's stuck in my zipper!!!; Alfie and Joey; Sam and Taylor; Bo Jangles; U.S.M.C. Recon Tiger-stripe fatigues (that was for you DAD); poor grammar; jungle-boots; Britain vs. Argentina; The Empire strikes back!!!! "This is the delegate from Sweden in rm. 205. May we join the party?"; Toy soldiers "What do you want? A brass potato?"; For Your Eyes Only (50 times); James Bond — my idol — he knows how to handle the women; Bluff Lake; Mr. Yelfin's class; "Is the latest Paris Match in???" "What this library needs is a subscription to Penthouse"

Esteemed Comrade: You have not been left out. Onwards with the glorious revolution of the oppressed proletariat. Nutty students of the world — Unite!!! Take care, comrade. Keep studying the Deutche and one day you might go to the glorious, Arian fatherland to get some practice speaking Deutche. Good Luck always!

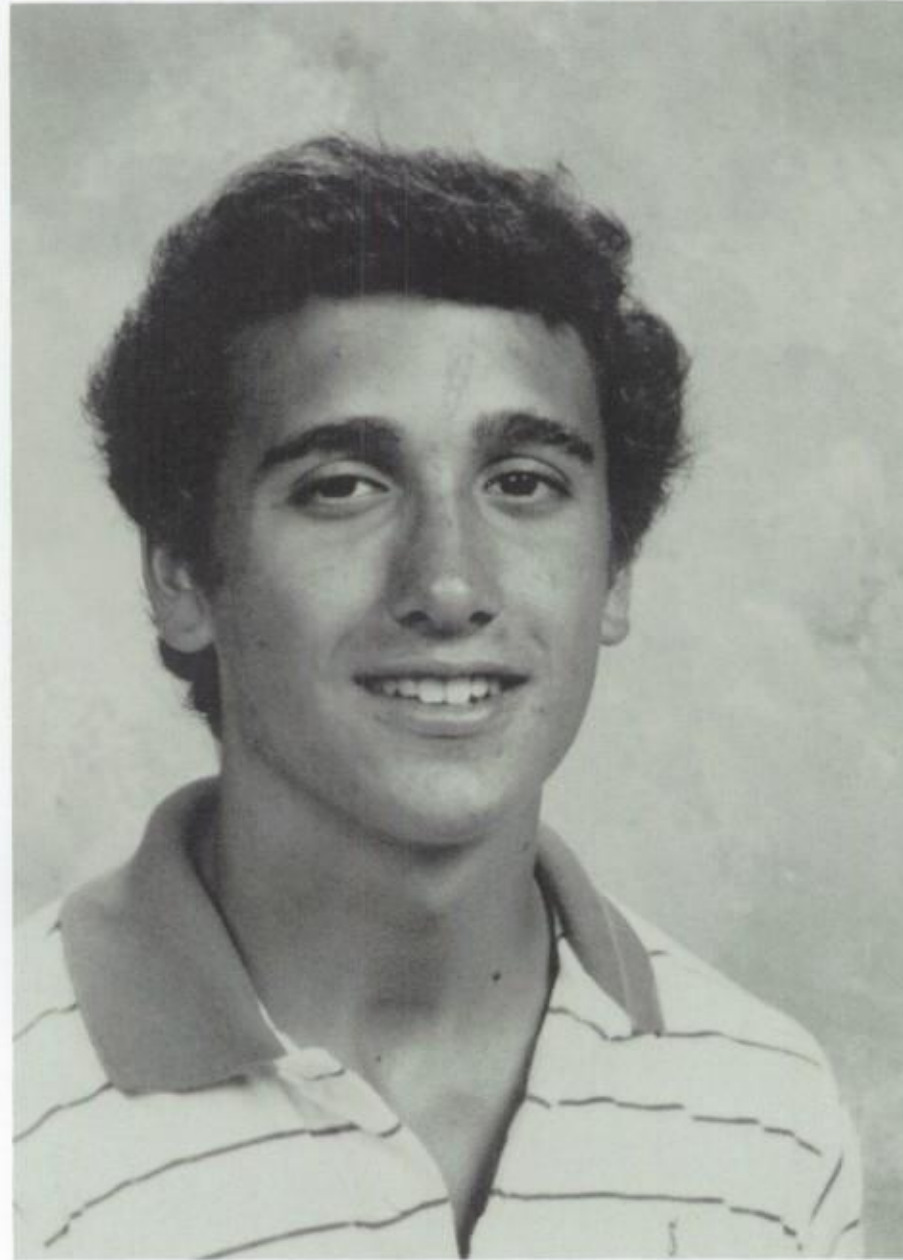

Edward Crespi

Thanks to Mom and Dad for ... the parents they have been,
the loving support I needed,
the expenses and efforts.
I LOVE YOU very much.

Chris; So you found out that Rico's real name is Garrick, but do you know his middle name? Let's hold a Bob the Beverage Man/Oscar Le Coe festival. Remember those long D&D games: Itchyban!! and Smack!! Space Cow Lives? Well Chris you've been a bud and a pal and don't ever change. I'll see you up at Berkeley, well at least "most likely".

David T.; Hey Dave, I never see you anymore! By the way, what does Pure-A-Nez mean?

Paul; Hey, how about a quickie comix, Paul? Hope I see you soon; you're the only other Three Stooges fan in the class.

Ira; Second Annual "Jock Wars" — be there!

Warren; Save your soul, go Heavy Metal!

Joy; Hurrah Rocky Horror, long may it wave!

Mr. Knight and Mrs. Zilinskas; Never thought I would finish that dragon, did you? Have patience.

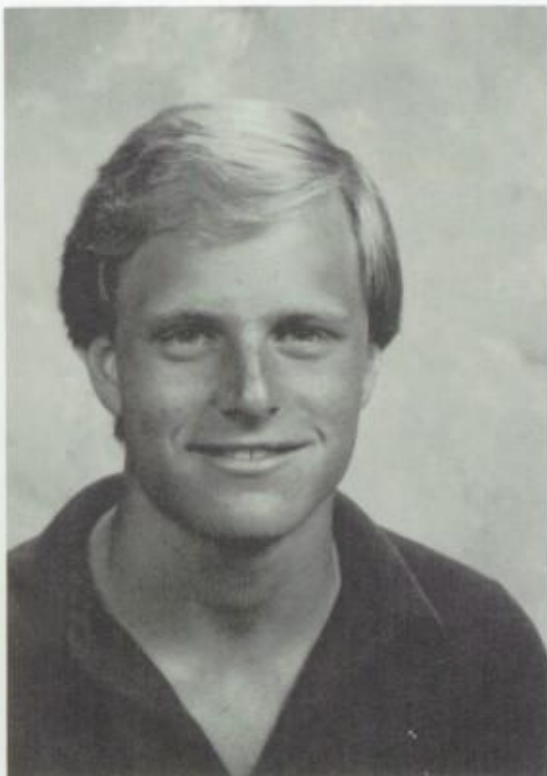

Dr. Mazzi; I made it through your class with minimal damage, except to my respect for Italian jokes. Good luck with the Juniors.

Mrs. Chin and Mr. Gilmore; Now don't you feel enlightened having had me in your class and in your office every Friday to offer you my helpful hints; but please no thanks are necessary.

Special Thanks to Dr. Mazzi, Mr. Griffin, Mrs. Balak, Mrs. Cacicedo, Mr. Gibson — for all their care, guidance, and understanding.

TO ALL OF MY FRIENDS, THANKS FOR ALL OF THE GREAT TIMES AND MEMORIES! Zack, Matt, Willie, (and me) — The Fearsome Four, parties at Willy's, Dana Point — the bust and the too big party, just too many loads and not enough McDonalds!, Bob Marley Reggae, English Beat, Sex Pistols, The Jam, Specials, B-52's, THE DIME BOYS — "Dime? DIME?", "Doods, more loads . . .", "I'm sooo burning", moosehead beer, Ruth, Carol, Mara, and Cini — The Mothers Club, Zack — friends since 2nd grade, "the 50", "the RN", Caroline's and then we started driving — oh nooooo! It's been really fun and more still to come — it's not over yet! Willy — you surf too much, remember to watch out for that killer east swell when you cut left and smash the lip. Thanks for being a good buddy, Matt — you are probably more like me than all of these guys, lots of memories — scarfing, Ruth, Gretchen, haircuts, parties (Beverly ones-bail) oh and sorry I dented your surfboard — we'll always be partyin'. No Chris and Jordan, I didn't forget about ya — the best Cate — friends I ever had (except of course you, Wilbur), we had some pretty disillusioned realistic experiences together, Evelyn (Ev) — you have always been so special to me, and our memories are endless. I can only hope that they shall never end. You were always the one who listened and helped me when I needed someone or when I felt I had no one else. Thank you so much. I love you. Marlina — (Marls) the most beautiful (and cutest) little sister I have ever had. For personally dealing with my ex-girlfriends, I commend you as well as adore you. Though young, you always gave all of yourself (doing all you could) in sticking up for me, in face of those much older than yourself. Yes, I'm going to college now, but I'll still be watching out for you, so look out! I love you very much. Melissa — (Mel) — thank you for being such a wonderful friend. You have done so much for so many aspects of my life. I am forever indebted to you — going to all those parties, eating all that food! I also want to thank you for the many friendships that I have because of you. Love you always . . . Kathy (Kat) — thank you so much for your help in probably one of the lowest points of my life. You suffered a great deal to help me and do what you thought was right. Gretchen J. — stay as wild as you are. I wish you all the best and I hope that we will always be good friends — I love you. Gretchen W. — I have always thought that you are the sweetest, most innocent person that I have met in my life. You are a special friend who I hope to have forever. Caroline Skakel — you are probably the most difficult person for me to understand, but, our experiences will always have a special place in my heart. Keep in touch. Tiffany, Lisa, Dini, and Jill — you are four wonderful people that I will always remember. Mimi and Dalee — thanks for all the wild and crazy haircuts — you both are so talented.

Mom, Dad, Susie — You will never realize how much you have taught me through your opinions, even though I was not compelled to take most of them. You have also brought me all of the love and happiness a girl could ever wish for. You are responsible for my living and excelling. I'm going to make you proud. I love you!! Tania — Wantan — Dave, Brian, Dave, I hope your happy now ... Tony's cat ... Rec Center ... Younglife ... Talent show ... Michelle's mom's laugh ... Doug at the play ... cracking Jeff's window ... fights over the radio ... Uni (Fred & George) ... my car ... Melrose ... poems ... yogurt ... sparkling hair ... "where's my cosmo" ... checking out, or is it in. Thank you for a wonderful 6 years. Joy — Tyler & Henry ... John, Keeth, Larry, Warren, Danny, Luigi, Jon, Jeff ... Roundmeadow ... "breath sweeter than chicken" ... little red convertibles and blonde hair ... massage oil. We began in the same place, now I'm ahead. I know you'll catch up. I love you. Dawn — Would you like to dance? Sorry, I'm with her" ... running on the beach ... Florentine's ... Bowwowwow ... Chris ... pizza and talks about life lifes. I've only known you for 2 years, but they have been great. We will find time to catch up. Val — Magic Mountain ... swimming ... 321 ... Tracie Gaudlock

Mom, don't worry, I'll make it. Just give me time. I love you.

To Dipy: Volkswagon forever. Thank you for your support and thanks for trying to get me into shape both mentally and physically.

Leslie — Don't you like this look. We've been through a lot — too many memories to repeat. You are my favorite afro-child imitation. I love you.

Through thick and thin, my babies will always be there for me (as long as I have biscuits in my hand).

Lia, Cheerleading, what a blast! Thanks for being so understanding. I know you'll always be there for me. I love you.

Daddy!

Jen: Hey, Karno Woman! My traveling buddy you really mean a lot to me because I feel as though we have a mutual trust which I will always cherish. Thanks for just being my friend. Love ya, Trac.

Christina: Wow, what a babe! Love the looks, especially the sexy one. We've had fun, a lot of different experiences. I know I'll look back, maybe, one day and laugh or just crawl in a hole and just die. Seriously, you are a good friend.

Brantwood — Thank you for the support. I know Miss Huchel had fun helping me through school. But, all in all, it's been a nice experience. Thankx.

Troy, my brother and friend. No one knows how much you mean to me. Thank God we've gone through these ups-and-downs together. Don't forget our pact, the big D. I love you, your sis, Kimsey Gous.

AMY: My little sister, you've been a truly great friend. I will always remember you. However, you still have to put up with me for four years at college. I love you neighbor! RONI: You geek! You will always hold a special place in my heart and be remembered as one of my closest friends. Thanks for talking to me when I needed you most. I love you very much, Cagney. SCOTT: Hey Shermy, it's Bucky. Scott, my best friend for sixteen years, I will always remember all the fun times we've had. Going into Westwood, Teepeeing, playing basketball/football/baseball/tennis, and just plain being best friends. Take care bud, I hope that all your wildest dreams come true! Bro's forever. DAVE: Wooders! I'm glad that we have become such good friends, it's really fun goofing around with you. I know that we are only going to get closer. P.S. Your mama's a gerbil. ED: Pompador! Hey dude, it's amazing how close we've gotten in such a short time. Memories: Mr. Know-it-all, Westwood, playing Risk, Czechoslovakian brothers (Kazmir, Stevenski and Vladimir), going to camp, sleeping outside at camp, cruising Santa Monica Place and following that girl for such a long time, Bible Quiz (Question?), and talking about such stupid things on the phone. Take care bud. ROB: You have got to be the all-time stud (second to me). We have shared so many memories: Mr. Know-it-all, Cruising chicks, laughing for a half an hour straight at F.H., Westwood, the Czechoslovakian brothers (Foxes are now!), playing Hackey sack (Alawicious and Odie), the Pink Mimis vs the Black Knights, sleeping outside at camp, the Czech sisters (Jennifer — Kashmar, Tahnee — Yosi), following that girl at the SM Place, witnessing and being rejected, chicken joke (How do you ask a deaf man if he wants some chicken ... HEY DO YOU WANT SOME CHICKEN!!), see-food, and everything else two guys could do. You're a great guy, don't ever change. Also, that was beautiful, thanks for sharing that. JOHN: You have got to be one of the craziest guys I have ever known. Thanks for being such a dependable friend. Remember moving all the furniture out at camp, that was a blast. Have a good life. TIM: You have taught me so much. Thanks for being the older brother that I never had, but more importantly, one of my dearest friends. You have cared so much for me and whatever I did. I know that we will stay friends forever. DAVID: My little bro. I'm really glad that we're as close as we are. We've come through so much together. I've really seen you mature a lot over the past few years, good luck in the future. LINDA: Hey sis, thanks for being so supportive of me. You really have helped me get my life together. I feel like I have gotten to know you so much better recently. You are an extremely beautiful woman both inside and out. Take care, I love you. MOM and DAD: What can be said to the most loving, caring, supportive parents in the world? You two have shaped me into the man that I have become. Although I never say it enough, I really appreciate the work that you have done for me. Thanks for supporting me in whatever I do. I love you both very much. JESUS: Thanks for being my absolute best friend! You have gotten me through all the hard times, and shared all the good times. I WOULD LIKE TO EXTEND THANKS TO: Mom and Dad, for always caring and understanding. I love you both. Mr. Gibson, Ms. Huchel, Dr. Temple, and all fellow prefects, for making it an enjoyable and productive year. Dr. Mazzi, the second greatest Rodney fan in the world. Mrs. Crittenden, for your appreciation and guidance in two years of joyous journalism. (Don't lose your laugh.) all my friends, especially Sean, David (both), Jeff, Rocky, Peter, Faryan, Adam, and Andrew, whom I have shared my greatest experiences both in and out of school.

Thanks for putting up with many a bad joke.

Love and respect to my dear friends and all those that have enriched my life. There will always be a special place in my heart for you.

Sondra — Friends forever. Love Ya!

Tiffany, Staci, Al, Heather, Lara — We have had many great times . . . Thank you for always being there.

Special Thank you to Mrs. Zilinskas, Mme Podner, Ms. Huchel, Coach Bridges, Dr. Mazzi and Mr. Knight, Dr. Spence.

Au Revoir tout le monde et bonne chance!!!!

Mom and Dad — I love you two more than words can express. Thank you so much for everything. Both of you are the most important people in my life.

Evan — My biggest bro and riding pal. I know we will make it one day. You are a great brother. I love you Kurt — No fat chicks or tubby roosters. We have had many memories I will always cherish. I love you.

Caity — The best sister anyone could ever have. I know we will forever be best buddies. Remember Richard S. and being cool.

Sheri — So many memories and the best of friends always.

Lauren — A warm, caring friend who I can always count on. Thank you for everything. Love Ya!

Gotta Luv It!!!

Before — just the 3 of us

To my family: Even though it hasn't been all smooth sailing through the years, your constant love, concern, and support have pulled me through the rough, as well as the good times. And now that it's time to move on to a new phase of my life, I'll cherish every moment we've had even more. I love you!!!

Paul: the successful "smuck"! What happened to Fritz Noble??? 7th grade initiation ... UCLA tickets ... Jimmy Craig ... computers, cars, skiing ... BRILLO, UGH!!!

Jeff: skiing at Mammoth ... Chevy's, Ford's, Bimmers, my Lotus and your Countach ... Steve Blood, Goody Goody, The Bum, and the infamous "eh Jeff, Paul, Sean, Rock, and ..."

Both of you will always be the BEST things I'll remember about high school!

Faryan: English will never be the same without you Rinaldo, Ignatius, Ophi ... your outspoken, foot-in-your-mouth characteristics have made some of my terrible days into great ones. By the way, how many books are there in the library, Farran???

Peter and Rocky (the odd couple): Algebra 2 ... and you wanted a Peugeot ... "quit squeekin" ... GTI's couldn't crawl out of a hole in the ground.

You guys are probably some of the most animated people I've ever met. How am I gonna get through science without you?

Adam and Levy: skiing, cars (mostly cars), Mr. Bland's agricultural class ... what did you say, Levy? I couldn't HEAR YOU!!!

Somehow, Math and Science won't be as lively without you!

Chris and David: Bowie ... computers ... "hey" ... "skis and cars again???" ... slave trading, picking on Corrigan before French class ... those outrageous suits!!! ... "how much did you say that tie cost?"

I think your peculiar manners and the insane things you do have made life at Brentwood a little more bearable. (yeah, yeah, so what else is new.)

To the rest of my friends: even though there's not enough space to mention all the things we've been through, there won't be a moment when these times and our friendship will be forgotten.

After — where'd they come from?

Mrs. Wallace: I thank you for teaching me the realities of life, in addition to English. Even though I may not have talked too much, the values and lessons I've learned in BOTH of your English classes will last a life-time.

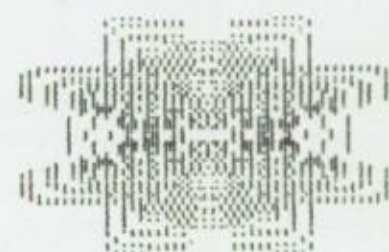

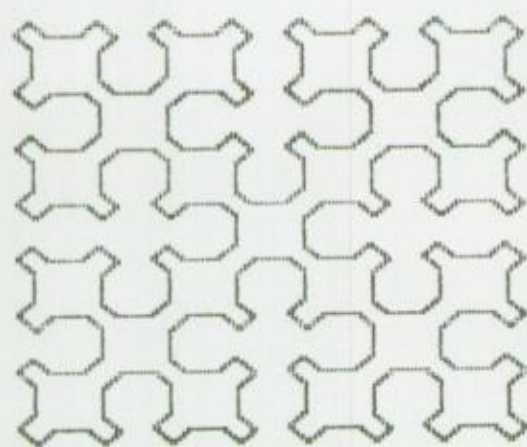

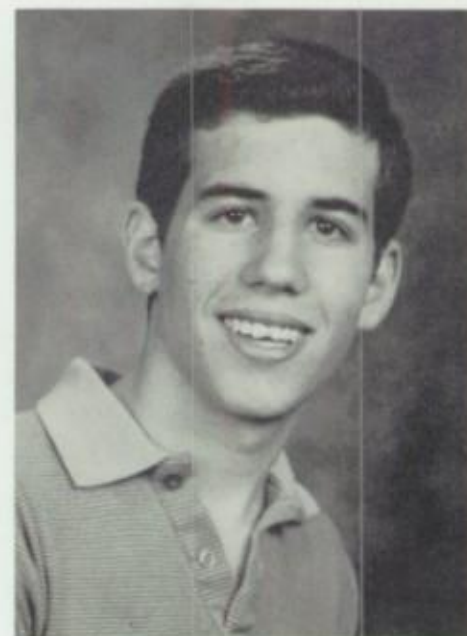

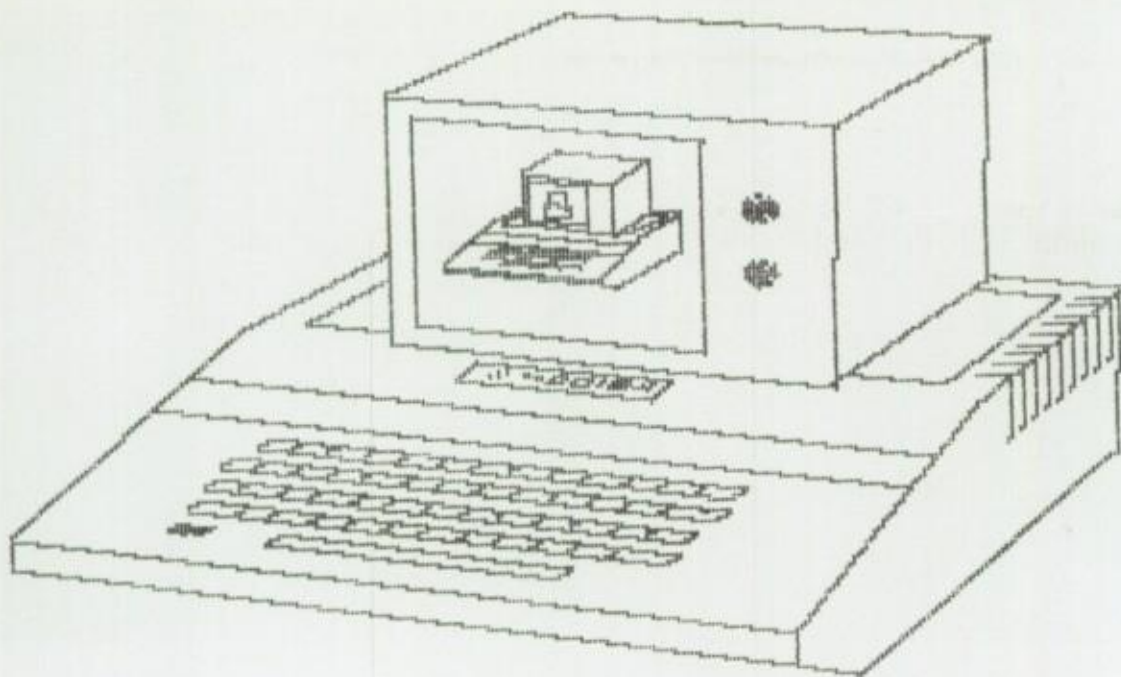

Mrs. O'Hanlon: You were the first Upper School teacher I knew in the 9th grade, and your continual support in French and English through the years has been very uplifting. Thanks!

Dr. Belt: What can I say about the best teacher I've ever had? Your method of presenting your lessons — conveying ideas not in a mechanical or ritualistic manner, but with such fascination and appreciation which comes from the great love you have for teaching has been truly inspiring. And the trust and concern you invest in human affairs — our affairs, and for life in general is a lesson in itself. It is all of your characteristics as a teacher and a person which has sparked something inside of me, motivating me to learn. I feel truly fortunate to have had you as a teacher, mentor, and friend during my years at Brentwood.

To the rest of the faculty: I thank you from the bottom of my heart for being the friends and family that you are.

If you think you are beaten, you are
If you think you dare not, you don't
If you like to win, but think you can't,
It's almost a cinch you won't

If you think you'll lose, you're lost;
For out in the world we find Success begins with a fellow's will;
It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you are outclassed, you are;
You've got to think high to rise.
You've got to be sure of yourself
Before you can win a prize.

Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man;
But sooner or later the man who wins
Is the man who thinks he can.

Kiet's party — umm, we have to leave now ... well, we made it through another season ...

BRENTWOOD: Many thanks. The past three years have been challenging, exciting, and enjoyable. Now it's time to move on.

MRS. CRITTENDEN: Thank you for your guidance and trust — and above all, for having confidence in me.

DR. MAZZI: My years at Brentwood wouldn't be complete without having your class. Your interest and caring has made my Brentwood experience a truly memorable one.

DR. BELT: Thanks for your understanding, appreciation, and great sense of humor. I'll never forget you.

To all my teachers, coaches, and friends: Thanks for being part of my life at Brentwood.

Mom, Dad, and Lisa: Thanks for your love, support, and guidance. I love you very much.

The Resident Hound

Jason Kamm

Mom and Dad: To my favorite parents — thanks for giving me love and guidance while letting me be my own person.

Brian and Meredith: My older brother and sister, thanks for putting up with me over the years.

My friends:

Warren — My best buddy! We've been through a lot of fun times: concerts, getting lost, records, beach, late night milano and ding-dong raids, eating contests, ski trips, Gordon's noises, your driving, disc jockeying, parties, my stupid sayings etc . . .

Tom and Phil — You guys are crazy. We've had fun at parties, broombal, bralls at my house and late night phone calls.

To the rest of my friends, Mark, Staci, Tiffany, Heather, Alex, Lara, Megan, J.J., Bozo, Holmes, Nancy, Josh, Mike, Lisa, Hilary, etc . . . Thanks for helping me through.

Jennifer Camille Karno

Mr. Cacicedo: Besides being one of the best teachers I've ever had, you've also been one of my best friends. Thanx for making me aware of so much. I Love you!

Mr. Reed: I can't thank you enough for your patience, support and faith. You are an inspiration to me.

Kenny: Well my "good friend", remember I am never far away, and believe in you immensely. When is the duet and marriage? You are such a genius — a real amazing cornicopia of talent. I admire you more than anyone else. (Stroke that ego) Ken and Jen what a team.

Kari: I've really missed you. I now realize how important your friendship is to me. I know we'll remain close. You've been so generous and such a good friend, I really love you + friends forever.

Chris K: Being in school with you for four years has been an experience I'll never forget. We've had our share of adventures and "first times". I care very much for you, and I'll miss the concerts, phone calls, parties, motorcycle rides, band practices, backrubs, ski trips, car rides to Mammoth, late nights and most of all being with you.

Kris L: Our senior year has been an amusing adventure. I laugh when I think of the chaos we cause together. Thanks for being so much fun and such a great friend. By the way, I'm paying next time! Newport here we come.

Tracie G: You have been a true friend to me, and I feel that as the year went on and interesting circumstances arose, we became very close. Hey Trace ... look at that! Ooooh baby!

Ramsay: You are one of my dearest friends and you deserve a medal for putting up with my zany "emotional" behavior.

Arika: One day we'll look back on all of this and laugh. I am, however, very glad we became and remained such good friends. We have much in common, and you mean much to me. Eileen Ford's calling you babe.

Nick: I thought when you came to school you'd be "Jen's little bro" seems like I ended up being "Nick's Sis." I paved the road but you made it glitter.

Mom: I appreciate the support and all that you've done for me. Thank You so much for believing in me.

Dad and Bev: Thanks for taking me in and being there through my hard times.

Jas: We've been through too much to fit on any page. I'll always treasure your friendship, thanks for keeping me smiling and laughing all these years. Josh: Our friendship is timeless and inseparable, but that didn't keep me from missing you this year. Although I really don't believe that everything has been said before, I couldn't have written what I feel for you any better than these words from our theme song: "How I wish, how I wish you were here/ We're just two lost souls swimming in a fish bowl, year after year./ Running over the same old ground. What have we found? The same old fears./ Wish you were here." Europe is only 167 days away as I write this, and we are going to have the time of our lives!! Mrs. Wallace: Thanks for being my inspiration. You are a wonderful teacher and a wonderful human being. I hope you find your Canadian Nirvana. I will never forget you.

Esteban: You can only guess how much I admired you since Spanish 1. Now I admire your friendship as well. You have taught me many valuable things in and outside of the classroom. Good luck, peace and happiness to all of you, from all of me.

Gorbob: Hey Pish! Thanks for being a great bro. Keep up your search for the ideal girl, can the voices, make all the teams, be good to mom and dad and HAVE FUN while I'm gone. I love you. — Bubba Mom and Daddio: You have been the most understanding and caring people in my life (in other words, you spoiled me). Dad, I am so glad that we became friends this year, you have no idea how important it was to me to be able to really talk to you. Mom, we have the same compulsive and creative spirit and we've been through very much together — thanks for your omni-present support, concern and embraces.

Mom and Dad — Thank you for all the love and support you have given me over the years. I love so very much.

Tracy: We made it!!! Six years of ups and downs, laughing, learning, living. An unbelievable period of that time that will stay with us always. From Malibu Tahoe — and all the inbetween — the craziest and best of times making the school years bearable. The end is only the start of a beginning, and here we go! Best friends — now and forever. I love you.

Per: My pretend bro! Ice Cream Sundays, water fights, San Clemente, long talks. Love you + lots.

Kari: Distance failed to change an unbelievable friendship. So many things shared — so many memories! I love you.

Jenniye: Newport, What red light???, Swwimmm, S.M. pier, picture booth, Wildflower, crooked windows Huck Finn, Fred the Tree, Cruisin', emergency lanes + so much more!! Friends forever.

Tracie: SC, the hat, the notes, the jerk, morning bust + crazy times!

Eric: You've been a great friend. What would I do without you? I love you!

Greg, Dean, Kurt, Paul, etc.: You guys are great.

Will You Be My Friend?

Will you be my friend? / There are so many reasons why you never should: / I'm sometimes sullen, often shy, acutely sensitive, / My fear erupts as anger, I find it hard to give, / I talk about myself when I'm afraid / And often spend a day without anything to say. / But I will make you laugh / And love you quite a bit / And hold you when you're sad. / I cry a little almost every day / Because I'm more caring than the strangers ever know. / And, if at times, I show my tender side / (The softer and warmer part I hide) / I wonder, / Will you be my friend? / A friend / Who far beyond the feebleness of any vow or tie / Will touch the secret place where I am really I, / To know the pain of lips that plead and eyes that weep, / Who will not run away when you find me in the street / Alone and lying mangled by my quota of defeats / But will stop and stay — to tell me of a day / When I was beautiful. / Will you be my friend? / There are many reasons why you never should: / Often I'm too serious, seldom predictably the same, / Sometimes cold and distant, probably I'll always change. / I bluster and brag, seek attention like a child, / I brood and pout, my anger be wild, / But I will make you laugh / And love you quite a bit / And be near when you're afraid. / I shake a little almost every day / Because I'm more frightened than strangers ever know, / And, if at times, I show my trembling side / (The anxious, fearful part I hide) / I wonder, / Will you be my friend? / A friend / Who when I fear your closeness, feels me push away / And stubbornly will stay to share what's left on such a day, / Who, when no one knows my name or calls me on the phone, / When there's no concern for me — what I have or haven't done / And those I've helped and counted on have, oh so deftly, run / Who, when there's nothing left but me, stripped of charm and subtlety, / Will nonetheless remain. / Will you be my friend? / For no reason that I know / Except I want you so. / James Kavanaugh

Grandpa M. and Grandma C., and the Camerons: What can I say? ... Thanks.

Daniella Pacher

To my parents;
Thank you so much for the support and love that you have always given me. You helped me become the person that I am: I could never have done it without your help and influence. I love you both more than anything!

New York:

I'll always have a large part of the Big Apple with me: Riverdale, Studio 54, The Ritz, Danceteria, Bloomingdale's, Fiorucci, Central Park, express bus, snowdays, Broadway, Chrysler Building, Knoll's Crescent, Independence Avenue, The Century, Fifth Avenue, JFK, what's the West side?, taxi! No city has so much glitter.

Pat — thank you for all the love you gave me. I will always cherish that summer; Kenny's Castaways, The Other End, The olive Tree, roses, Washington Square Park, Ellis, Tiger Chateau Neuf-du-Papes, falafel, Ice teas, Kris' roof, and then the airport. Think of me, stay out of trouble and ... "Guess what?"

Mami — a.k.a. Wench, Mams, Spazz, and Mamface! I can't believe it's been 6 years since we met — we've been thru so much together: fighting, giggling, and most of all growing up. We went from Snoopies to boys, the Hill Campus to the River, pizza to White Russians, Barbies to Studio, little girls to special friends. You and I will never drift apart!

Thanks also to my Riverdale friends we went through a lot together. I love you: zachy poo, Wendi, Kris, John, and Tim. A special thank-you to Doc and Mr. Colan. Remember: an undefeated football team, wrestling, ski trips, ice cream man, Sunbathing, April Fool's, Shuttle rides, Grey Key, my ski party, and much, much more!

Lisa — You and I have built a lasting friendship in incredibly short time. We've been thru tons of good and bad times: Lee, Cloves, Nathan, New York, tearful phone calls, egg rolls, Westwood, etc. I Send you all my love for ever and ever (providing I get free tickets to all your Broadway plays!), and "Don't be silly!"

Janet, Janine, Anja, etc. — you have been such a special friend, and I miss the added spark you gave to Brentwood. You and I have so much in common: after all we're both overly sensitive! "I wish you continued success at Colgate, and I can't wait to go to your wedding!!

Bill — sweetie, I love you so much for all the support you have given me. I'll always be there for you. Don't ever forget all the good times that we had — just think of the ones yet to come.

Ramsay my love — I won't make you sick with what I have to say. Just take out your yearbook and read that horrible passage! I Love You! (Sorry I had to say that.)

Ms. O'Hanlon: I can never thank you enough for all that you taught me, both inside and outside the classroom. Love always ...
Dr. Belt: Thank you so much for all the help and making this year special to me.

Thank you Brentwood for giving me a new home and so many friends!
Philip, Hilary, Jason, Joy, and Arika: You have been amazing friends! Erin, Jason, Blake, Kathy, and Melissa: Hope we have some more fun times!

Los Angeles: my second home. Thank you for the sunshine, my car, Sunset, Westwood, the beach, a tan, pedicabs, Gelare, Beverly Hills, Roxbury, parties in my garden, kegs, screwdrivers, blonde surfers, Valley girls, Porsches, palm trees, freeways, volleyball, Wilshire, smog, and lots of friendly people.

A FRIEND IS SOMEONE FOR WHOM YOU SET A SPECIAL PART OF YOUR HEART ASIDE. THAT PART IS FILLED WITH MEMORIES AND LOVE, ENOUGH TO GET YOU THROUGH ANYTHING!

— ANONYMOUS

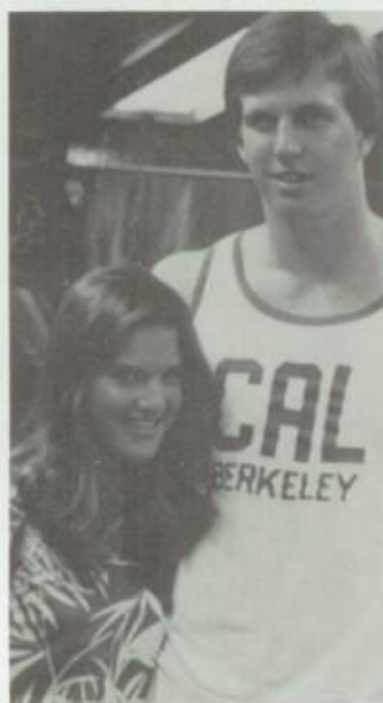

Aren't they cute?

My big break & so my career begins.
Mutt & Jeff Rock out!

Dave, You are very special to me, & no one can ever change the way I feel about you! David, I'll always love you.

Stuart, You've made "all the right moves" to me. Look out 1984 Olymppics.

CONGRATULATIONS YOU GUYS AND GOOD LUCK!

To those who are not pictured here but leave me with special memories, I would like to thank you and hope we can keep in touch. I wish you all the best of luck in the future.

Mom & Dad — Thank you for putting up with me and letting me just be me! I can't ever tell you how much your love will be appreciated. I love you both for the support, guidance, caring & understanding which you have given me throughout life.

Kris — Without that crazy personality of yours, I don't think I ever would have made it through this year. Kris, BELIEVE IT OR NOT, I'm going to miss you so
PLEASE keep in touch!

Dawn — I know we haven't really spent much time together this year, but I still feel we are close friends. I want to keep it that way to let's keep getting together and go running, to a UCLA basketball game or just have one of our long talks. P.S. When am I ever going to meet your sister?

Robin — You will never know how much I appreciate our friendship. I feel that we've become really close friends, & I hope to keep it that way. You are a good friend, fun to be with and so sweet. Thank you for just being yourself.
P.S. One of these days we'll finally go to the gym together!

Nora — I know we never really got together this year, but thanx to our schedules we managed to get at least one class together and a couple of free periods. I enjoyed our talks so much. Nora, thanx for being there, and thanx for being such a good listener.

Sarah — It's hard to believe that a friendship could grow as strong as ours just thru letters. Sarah, what can I say that I haven't already said in my letters. I know you are having a blast in Denmark, but I miss you, so come home soon!

Carla — What can I say that you don't already know. You are my best friend and always will be. I won't say I'll miss you 'cause I know we'll be together in the future years in college & continue to make more nutty memories. Best Buddies Always — Love Lap. P.S. "God bless you, & have a good life!"

Debbie — Can you believe we've finally made it through B-wood together for 6 years? We've gone through so many stages. One year we are constantly together, the next year we hardly ever see each other. This last year, I feel that we've become the closest ever. You are a very close and special friend to me and we shared soooo many memories & good times. We've shared experiences, good & bad, which have brought us closer. We will continue to have many more memories, so when we are married and (have kids?), we can look back and laugh. So Debbie, don't loose our memories. Good luck to you and Keep in Touch! I'll miss you!

To all the seniors — it's been great being part of such a special, unusually happy family.

Merian and Tony — My extended family, you've both added diversity and warmth to my life that will always be with me, I love you.

Mom, Dad and Rachel — You're all so special I can not put into words my feelings for you. You're the best family I could possibly have. I love you.

Carmen Richardson

They tell me it's time to move on.
Time not to cry,
Time not to regret,
Time not to look back (or become a pillar of salt),
And yet I leave little pieces of myself
Scattered before the wind, somehow.
I try to gather them frantically,
Frantically, but they are gone.
Oh, take my hand and lead me, someone,
Into the new day.
I must make up what I have lost
And I am running out of time ...

SPECIAL PEOPLE: JOY, CATHY, TANIA etc ... "You maybe crazy, but it just may be a lunatic you're looking for." — B.J. Thanx, you guys, for four years of craziness. Love always.
Also thanks to: J.J. the Sugar-Pops man, KENNETH who "stood by me," WARREN (thanks, you two, for the lingerie!), and STEVE DISAIA. "As soon as I wake up/ Every night, every day/ I know that it's you I need/ To take the blues away." — Madness
SETH: my "best friend" of six long and crazy years; you've shared my thoughts and secrets, and will always be part of me. If we don't go to the same college, there's going to be some phone bill! I love you.
KEITH: "One runs the risk of weeping a little, if one lets himself be tamed". — (from The Little Prince). You and I have shared things that will always be special. You have been my tears, my laughter, my romance ... So don't be so sad, take good care. I love you ... oh, and "You're so good to me," Thanx.
To all of you from GWU: esp. Sharon, Nancy, and Charles. Thank-you for the best summer of my life! Unique teachers: MS. CHIN, MS. WALLACE, MS. O'HANLON, and MR. KNIGHT: You have been among the most influential people in my life and the most special friends. I cannot find the words to thank you for the wisdom and the laughter. MR. REED: Thank you for sharing your friendship, humor and lunacy with me this year. DR. BELT: Of you it can be truly said that "gldly wolde he lerne and gladly teche" To the first true "gentleman" I have ever known, thanks.
MS. JOHNSON: Though you may never see this, thank you. To all my teachers: "I'd rather learn from one bird how to sing/ than teach ten thousand stars how not to dance." — e.e. cummings.
My family: NANCY and DADDY, CARLOS who takes such good care of me, and, of course, MOM (coartimos los secretos, los sueños, y las locuras). I love you all so much, and I couldn't be who I am without you! In the words of Poe, "With me poetry has not been a purpose, but a passion." Thanks to everyone who has been part of the poetry of my high school years.

Dear Mom and Dad: Thank you for making my life so enjoyable. I'm very grateful of all the advice, support, and opportunities you have given me. I love you both very much.

Dan: We became buddies in 7th grade, and ever since we have had the best of times together. You're the greatest pal a guy could ask for—the funniest too. I wish you good luck in the future and I know we will be good friends forever.

Dear Al: We've gone a lot together and you have added so much happiness to my life. You will always be in my mind and my love towards you will never decrease, for it will only increase with time. I'm going to miss ya hun. 143 forever. — Doyle

To All My Friends that I didn't get to mention — Good luck

Dear Coach Allen: You're the best big brother — I couldn't ask for any better. We will have many happy times together.; Rick: You're a great friend. Stay in contact.; M.J. and Mr. V.: I can't thank you enough for everything. (Thanx for the "sweater" M.J.); Thank you Brentwood for preparing me so well for college. I deeply appreciate everyone's help.

Drew: What can I say? We've been best of friends only for a short time, but in that time we've had a hell of a lot of fun, and I know we will continue that fun for the rest of our lives.

Lauren, Heather, Staci, Liz, Lara and Tiff: All of you are the sweetest girlfriends a guy could have. Thank you for all your love, laughter and advice. I love you all! — Doyle

Dear Earl: Thanx for being a great brother. I couldn't imagine having a funner little bro.

Dear Duquesne: Thanx for being such a great and cute little sis. I'll miss ya.

The Gang: you girls are great and I want to thank you for being there and helping school be a lot easier. "E.F." "Plenty of Time," Meg, Lauren, Alex, Heather — you have had some great parties. Remember the burglar. Tiffany.
Take Care
Love Dan

The folks from Pali: there are so many of you and I'm glad I know you all. Marty (B.F.) good times forever. You are one of the greatest friends I have. I know we will always be friends. Folks — Good times at Jimmy's, Tina's, the beach, the beach again, Ryan's, Swirvy action, Mike's, Marty's, The ski trip, New Years. Hey now

?? to you all

Brentwood you have proved to be a very challenging school, and now that I have finally graduated I thank you. I can't believe it, I'M FINALLY OUT OF HERE!

Doyle: what can I say? You have been a great friend and I'm sure that we always will stay friends. We have had so many good times that I will never forget and I'm sure we will have more. I wish you the best of luck in everything you do and hope that everything goes your way. "Give me a breath mint!!" The guy in the flowered shirt. P.S. Try to get the mini-bike out of first gear.

Thanks for everything!

Rick, Drew, Brad, Greg — The boys out in the hills. You guys are great and I hope that we can keep up those crazy times: remember the machine to speed up consumption "B.A." Rick, Drew — the boy in the flowered shirt is going to get — You guys know the rest. Basketball, that was fun. Howieeee — you and I have so many very crazy times and I don't think I would have done if you weren't there. Remember: the girls day out on the town — "I'd like you two to meet the groom" Brad: don't forget to keep riding him, Satterlee loves it. Rick: Thanks for helping me through a tough junior year. Dennis: Hawaii, fishing, surfing "you're 22!" Thanks guys those were fun times.

To Coach Brown and Coach Bridges: You two have changed football at Brentwood from being almost non-existent to a sport that has earned the respect of all our opponents. I am proud to have played football under you two very fine coaches and I wish you both the best of luck. Good luck Brentwood Football and I know that some day you will win the right to be called the champions of 8-man football.

"keep up the tradition against Masada"

To Mom and Dad: you are not only the best parents in the world, but you are also my good friends. I will never be able to thank you enough for all that you have shown me and taught me. I love you both!

To my sister, the mermaid: Ignoring all the little quarrels about who is going to wear this or that tonight, we are still best friends and I love you very much!!!

Even though you're not perfect Dad, I still love you.

Dreams, foolish dreams of the future,
Without them life can't continue.
Memories are much like those old dreams,
They too are fantasy.

To the grown-ups at Brentwood who have taught me, given me advice and cheered me up: I owe more to you than I can ever express. It is you, my teachers and my friends, who have made me who I am. Thank You.

We are a band of Pilgrims on a rough and stony road
We plod along the path of life bent with our human load
Sometimes the road looks grim and long and skies look cold and grey
The journey seems a weary one . . . We stumble on our way
But those whose eyes are fixed upon the stony path they tread
Miss half the beauty of the day . . . the green trees overhead
The birds, the stars, the rainbows, dawns, sunsets in the skies
There's so much to be seen by those who dare to lift their eyes
And there are Inns upon the way — Love — Beauty — Happiness
Where weary pilgrims may abide and find a quiet rest
Before they travel on their way, refreshed in heart and soul
Towards that City of their hopes on — on towards the goal

To all of my friends:
You're terrific!! We've had so many crazy, wonderful times together that I could not begin to list everything. I know I won't forget those memories or any of you. Thanks for all!!!

Old friends.
Memory brushes the same years.
Silently sharing the same fears.
Time it was and what a time it was
It was a time of innocence.
A time of confidences.
Long ago it must be.
I have a photograph,
Preserve your memories,
They're all that's left you.

— Paul Simon

A is for adorable, B is for my Bearable, C is for cuddly . . . Warren, you are the most wonderful thing that has ever happened to me.

Lifes a *!#!#, and then you die.

Now lift me close to your face till I whisper
What you are holding is in reality no book, nor part of a book; It is a man, flushed and full-blooded — it is I — so long! We must separate awhile — Here take from my lips this kiss; Whoever you are, I give it especially to you; So long! And I hope we shall meet again.

Tyke — I love you so much, can I borrow your new outfit? Just Kidding! You are a very important part of my life, and I really love you and need you. Beener Neener.
Dad — I love you a ton, mon pere. Thanks so much for always loving me so much, and always guiding me in the right direction. I hope I can make you as proud of me as I am of you. I will always love you daddy.
Mom — You mean the absolute world to me. I must use the inadequate words "thank you" for all the times you listened to me, helped me, kissed both my cheeks, said I love you, and just held my hand. You have always been ready to give me everything I needed. Some bunnit, Mom. I love you with all my heart.
grampa, gramma, deb, sue, jeff, greg, jenny — I love you all so much. I am lucky to have such a wonderful family.

Burkobutt — No matter what happens, I love you. I hope that everything you want comes your way.

Heath — Guess what? I forgot to tell you! Jenny and Greg died when the plane that Grant was flying crashed! He didn't know how to fly, but he needed the money for Celia's clay! I am so lucky to know you, let alone be close friends with a girl like you. I have no doubts that we will always be close friends. I just have to see your face one more time! Just "jabbin"! Jet'aime mongol. Stay near — Al — I truly hope that we go to school near each other. You are such a good friend, and I know you will always be there for me as you have always been. I hope that we will forever be friends, cuz I know neither of us wants that boring of a life! I love ya Linus! XOXO

Howie — I miss you presh! We are so lucky to have such a close relationship that distance doesn't affect! ... 143 ...

Shanny — I hope to Christ (Jesus H. that is) that we have already been accepted to UCLA! We are going to be friends forever no matter what though. We have too much fun together to drift apart. You will always be the thoughtful, adorable, and generous person you have always been to me. Thanx so much for all the love and respect ... I return twice as much to you, preshead!
Tabby — My first friend in L.A. Someone I can tell secrets to. Outgoing. Tezao. These things come to mind when I think of you. I am going to miss you so much! I hope we will always be great friends. I'll love you always!

Tiffins — I am so happy that we have become such good friends. You are going to have a great life. Your determination to do everything you want to do will ensure that. You better go to college in Southern Cal if you intend to live at all, may I remind you! I love you tons lins, and I can't wait till Xmas!

Lizard — Thanx for all the fun times. Our friendship has withstood a lot, so I don't think going to different colleges will affect it negatively if it comes to that. I love you very much, and I hope we will always stay close!

Doyleeee — An express thank you for all of my bruises, scrapes, cuts and hickies! High School would have been such a dud without you, really. I hope we will always stay in close touch, and good friends always stay close! I love you, cutie.

Riles — You are a very special and definitely unreplaceable friend. I will miss you very much. Good luck always, and stay in touch.

Fettucine (Adam) — Lance — Richie — Greg — Seth — Kenney — Pat — Mitch — Doug — Chris — I love you all! Thanx for all the great memories!

Jeremy — Thanks for everything. I wish you all the happiness you deserve.

Bill — I want you to know that I love and admire you very much. You are a helluva guy!

Michael — this, babe. I am very happy that you joined all of our lives! I love you.

Crace — Without your guidance and taste I would probably have ended up a mohan. I hope I can be as much to you as you have been to me. I love you so much.

Good luck to cuties like las-face, Markham, Megan, Mr. Reed, Dr. Mazzi, Coach P., Drewbert, Reek and Duq. Tu me manque jean-yves

President Joe once had a dream
The world held his hand, gave their pledge
So he told them his scheme for a Savior *
Machine
They called it the Prayer, its answer was law
Its logic stopped war, gave them food
How they adored, till it cried in its boredom
"Please don't believe in me, please disagree with me
Life is too easy, a plague seems quite feasable now, or maybe a war,
I may kill you all.
I need you flying, and I'll show that Dying is living beyond reason, sacred dimension of time,
I perceive every sign, I can steal every sign."

Mom — For my tantrums, my swearing (mucho), my problems; you always have helped me pull through to live for another day. Your love and guidance will remain in my heart forever, and though I rarely show it, I will always return this love for you. Thank you for all of your caring may it never end.

Jennifer — You have been an inspiration, showing me a person can enjoy life by just being their crazy self. Don't ever change Taublet, I love you!

Paul — How are you going to make a decent living with that Joe Crappola? Bet hey, we survived this Brentwood madness!! Reflections — Met thru Madwin. Phylis Dillers 1/2 sister (king crabs). Boyle — Stand on the zero. Hey Mom, guess what? Hello Mrs. Taub! (sigh). Palm Springs, can I ride the motorcycle? Quicky comix, General Wheat (shredded) Mrs. Radimile, never paying attention. Whatta fun year! So what if I messed up my chances of going to Yale (yuk yuk). Baseball with whisper. Palm Springs II. Philisophical writing with a jug of Cribari. If certain people only knew. How about a Pink lady? My scheme of thing presently curtains any further remembrance of our most Happenings so please remind me of more. See you in London, and don't let the sun blast your shadow ...

Adam — Mulholland? Well, it was interesting. The trio band that never worked (Thank god). Enjoy Berekley, Life and all that good stuff.

Chris G. — Hey!! Howe the mailbox? Hey Mike, can I put my feet on your desk?

Tracie G. — Glad I finally got to know you finally! Keep in touch afterwards, you've helped make Brentwood a fun (??) experience.

Steve D. — No words can describe the chaos between us these last 6 years. Not at on moment did our conversations make sense (except plotting toward certain language teacher). Hey Steve's mother! Where is the Apple Computer? There, you owe me one! Forgive the picture too.

Kari B. — Thanx for those calls, it's great to talk to a person of such high caliber. See you incredibly soon (leer jet, perhaps?)

Julie S. and Besty H. — How do you do it? Entrap me into endless nights of fries, slurpies, and brownies (A.B.J.). Hey David, we're having a party at your house, What?!? You, you Ginn, Fab, Jennifer (& Scott), Suzanne, and more have made life fun from being prosaci. Bye, lov ya, Thankee Kindly, Maam(s).

Jason K. — Bike tickets, New Years, Israel ... Madman!

Stu — Same to you and your goumie!

Wildman — Henry's, VS 83, and those things in Buggies. I'm David Taub, this is my car etc.

Beryer — Visits from the lab. Andy M — Be happy!

Chris Kirk — Lost Initiative. All that brew to the bikers. Try to retain sanity, but if impossible, than all power to you.

All the rest, you know who you are, our 6 years were be a monument in my memory forever. Bye!

"The dedication goes to my beloved father. Though you said goodbye too early, what you tried to show me of life, how precious it is, will be the strongest lessen I've ever learned (and perhaps my only A I've ever received)."

This page is dedicated to my mother, Verdia and to my Granny, Margaret.

Dear God, It's me Lia, Thank you for blessing me through this madness and continuing to hold my hand each step of the way. My only prayer is that you continue to bless me, and preserve my mother for me.
signed Lia Washington

P.S. Please tell my Granny that I love her and miss her very much.

Hello World I'm coming out!! Just ask Diana.

What a foxy model.
I'm such a HEART-BREAKER!

Daddy — You aren't there when I always need you, but you are my Father, and I love you.

Thank you Mr. Valesquez, Mrs. King and all of Brentwood! You have been a great help to me. You opened the door to my road of success.

Tacie G. — Trae-Babe, you are alright. You made Brentwood a fun place to go to school. Thank you for showing me so many things and introducing me to so many interesting people. You shined a light on my sometime dim high school life.

KRIS — Kri-dog, we made it! I never knew it would be this hard, but then again I was told that we would survive. You were the only strong connection between Brentwood and home. Without you, I probably wouldn't have stayed. We learned on each other and we made it! May God bless you down your path to U.S.C., and may I also be blessed richly at Howard. Good Luck, and remember me always.

Your Brentwood Prep. Sis.

Phyllis — Thanks for always being my best friend we go back a long way. We have experienced many strains during our friendship, but they only helped to shape and build our personalities. You will always be special to me.

Wendy — Thank you. For all the info. You are very informative and helpful . . . Always be there.

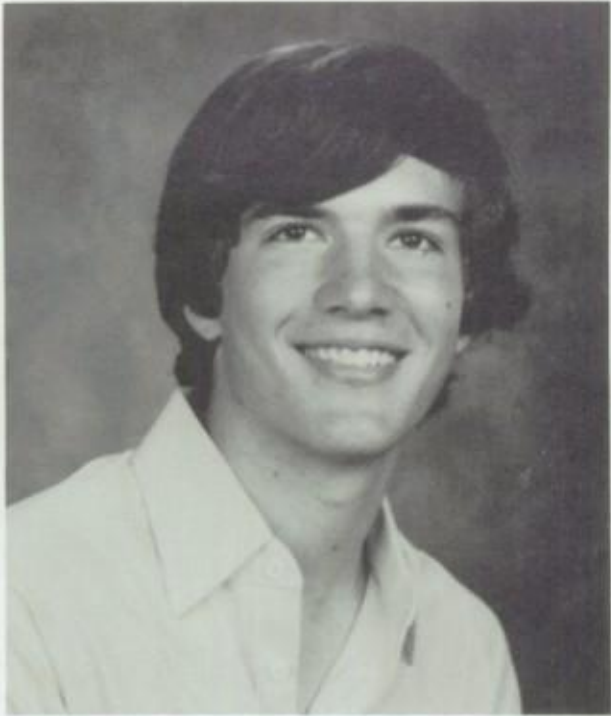

Mom — Thank you for everything! This page is a token of my love. Love Lia.

Courtney, I want you to know you are my favorite sister considering you are my only sister. I Love you very much, Co-Co!

P.S. Will you feed the dogs for me? Be sure and do it before mom gets home. Thanks.

Jeff Whitney

To Mom and Dad: Thank you for all your love and support. I could never have made it without you.
To Scott and Kristen: Thank's for being the great brother and sister that you are. I love you.

Like the pine trees lining the winding road,
I've got a name; I've got a mane
Like the singing bird, and the croaking toad
I've got a name; I've got a name
And I carry it with me like my daddy did but I'm living the dream he kept hid
Like the fool I am and I'll always be
I've got a dream; I've got a dream
They can change their minds, but they can't change me
I've got a dream; I've got a dream
Oh, I know I could share it if you'd Want me to; If you're goin' my way, I'll go with you
Movin' me down the highway, rollin' me down the highway, moving ahead
So life won't pass me by.

To mom and dad — there is no way I could begin to express my gratitude towards you.
You've done everything for me and made me thankful for it. Now it is time for me to go out on my own and luckily because of your guidance I know I can make it I will always love you.

Max — You have been the best friend I could have asked for. No matter what happened I could always depend on you. I'll never forget you, and hope to spend many more years with you. Remember Kenny Spaz, short jokes, jewish jokes. The Music Arguments, the Fiat and MG, Laker and King games, Nachos with artificially flavored cheese sauce, Hacienda and the hot tub. Erich, Brendan, Chris, Karl, Colin, Grant, and
Brett make up a great bunch of friends

A child arrived just the other day / He came to the world in the usual way / But there were planes to catch and bills to pay / He learned to walk while I was away / And He was talking before I knew it / And as he grew he said "I'm going to be like you dad / You know I'm going to be like you" / The Cats in the Cradle and the silver spoon / Little boy blue and the man on the moon / CHORUS "When you coming home dad?" I don't know when / But we'll get together then, son / You know we'll have a good time then. / My son turned ten just the other day / He said
"Thanks for the ball, Dad come on Let's play" / "Can you teach me to throw?" I said not today / I've got a lot to do,
He said "that's ok" / He walked away, but his smile stayed / and said "I'm going to be like you, dad / You know I'm going to be like you." / He came from college just the other day / So much like a man I just had to say / Son, I'm proud of you can you sit for awhile / He shook his head and said with a smile / "What I'd really like dad is to borrow the car / keys, See you later can I have them please" / CHORUS / I've long since retired and my sons moved away / I called him up just the other day / I said "I'd like to see you if you don't mind" / He said I'd love to dad if I could find the time / You see my next jobs a hassle and / the kids have the flu, but it's sure nice / talking to you dad, it's sure nice talking to you / and as I hung up the phone it occured / to me that he had grown up just like me / my boy was just like me. / CHORUS

Debs and Sharon — I Love you both in different but special ways. I know I was a pain a lot, but we had many good times too. I wish you both luck, and remember to stay out of trouble. I'm glad you are my sisters.

Tripp — Thanks a lot for all your help. I know we will be friends forever keep playing your music, I love it. Becareful of naked Trolls and weary of used tents Abdval might sell you and watch out for fried zuchini omelettes jumping out of buildings.

To all my friends and family I hope I was able to touch you and help you in some way. Without you I am nothing.

Kathy — You are like another sister to me, but not quite a sister I can't explain how I feel about you except that I love you dearly. If I ever hurt you, believe me it hurt me more, but it was what I had to do because it was better for you. Don't forget if all else fails Hug you Teddy Bear!
Michael Sol you were the little brother I nev-

We used him / We let him use his powers, / We let him fill Our needs. / Now We are strong, / And the road is coming to its end, / Now the damned have no time to make amends, / No purse of taken fortunes stands in Our way. / The silent guns of love will blast the sky. / We broke the ruptured structure built of age. / Out weapons werer the tongues of crying rage. / Where money stood / We planted seeds of rebirth / And stabbed the backs of fathers, / Sons of dirt. / Infiltrated business cesspools, / Hating through Our sleeves. / Yea, and We silt the Catholic throat / Stoned the poor on slogans such as: / 'Wish You Could Hear,' / 'Love Is All We Need,' / 'Kick Out the Jams,' / 'Kick Out Your Mother, / 'Cut Up Your Friend,' / 'Screw Up Your Brother of He'll Get You in the End. / And We Know the Flag of Love is from Above. / And We Can Force You to Be Free.' / And We Can Force You to Believe.' / And I close my eyes and tighten up my brain. / For I once read a book in which the lovers were slain, / For they knew not the world of the Free States', refrain / It said / "I Believe in the Power of Good. / I Believe in the State of Love. / I Will Fight for the Right to Be Right / I will Kill for the Good of the Fight for the Right to be Right." / And I open my eyes to look around. / And I see a child slain on the ground. / As a love machine lumbers through desolation rows, / Ploughing down man, women, listening to its command. / But not hearing anymore, / Just the shrieks from the old rich. / And I want to Believe / In the madness that calls
'Now.' / And I Want to Believe / That light's shinning through / Somehow / And I Want to Believe / And You Want to Believe / And We Want to Believe / And We want to Live / Oh,
We Want to Live / We Want to Live / We Want to Live / We Want to Live / We Want to Live / I Want to Live / I Want to Live / I Want to Live / I Want to Live / Live / Live / Live

Tania — We've shared so much, it's impossible to list the memories. I feel that some how we've shared even more "long distance" through our long and very sloppy letters. Thanks for the talks, the fun, and the memories. I love ya — JUST REMEMBER TO KEEP YOUR BIRD AWAY FROM ME!!!

To my entire "lunch bunch." You guys are great friends, high school wouldn't have been the same without you.

Dawn — Thanks to the use of your "Swiss Army Knife when I needed it the most.

Kris — did you ever find me that ROCKAFELLER? What did you mean you've givin' him to someone else?!!

Maggie and Thera — Do you think Denmark will ever recover . . . ? How did we manage to end up in one room? . . . You can be sure AFS will never make that mistake again! Cucumber, chocolate chip, and bubble gum parties? At 2 in the morning?!! What about our night at the University Bar in Copenhagen? . . . And yes Maggie you really did drink 13 glasses of wine.

Thera — never again will I only think of Tulips and Windmills when I think of Holland. did you know that I can speak Dutch, "goedenmorgen, ga je moeder pesten!" . . . Hold Kaest Manq, For Du Er Andsvag I Dag!

Anne, Henning and Kim — I er de bedste. I har givet mig sa meget uden at bede om noget til gengæld. Jeg ha berat jeg har giv givet jer 1/1000 of hvad I har givet mig. I kan tro at jeg kommer telbage.

Mrs. Levine Thank you for all the encouragement and support. I wouldn't be here in Denmark if it weren't for you.

Ms. Hahn — luh bin so glucklich, dass du meine Lehrerin warst. Ich habe viel von dir gelernt. Danke schon.

An extremely tough schedule, lack of experience, and key injuries contributed to the slow start for the 1983 Eagles. After winning only one of their first six games the Eagles rallied to defeat their last three regular season opponents. This streak enabled the Eagles to qualify for the C.I.F. playoffs for the second time in as many years.

The first victim in the three game winning streak for the Eagles was Providence High School. Trailing Providence by two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, the Eagles rallied behind senior Quarterback Doyle Richmond to tie the score in regulation and finally defeat Providence in overtime. This exciting Homecoming victory was the spark the Eagles needed and was the major factor contributing to their strong finish.

With seven underclassmen starting on defense, six on offense and a strong Junior Varsity team, the future looks very promising for the Eagles.

Brentwood School would like to thank Seniors Doyle Richmond, Dan Riley and Chris Gowing for all their hard work and dedication to the program throughout the years.

Coach Pat Brown

Boys Varsity Cross Country

The 1983 varsity cross country team was, in terms of ability, the strongest group of runners Brentwood has fielded to date. Though many runners were plagued by frequent injuries, the season ended quite successfully with a seventh place team finish in the IA-CIF Southern Sectional Finals. With only seniors Warren Kolodny and Kenny Williams not returning next year, the 1984 squad promises to continue Brentwood's excellent cross country tradition.

Ted Bush, Craig Forsyth, Greg Friedman, Chris Haggstrom, Carlton Hollyway, Steve Joyner, Warren Kolodny, Pat Maloney, Craig Owen, and Kenny Williams all helped to capture such highlights as dual meet wins over traditional rivals Maranatha and Harvard and a victory in a head-to-head competition over Crossroads.

The 1983 cross country team says good-bye to seniors Warren Kolodny and Kenny Williams. The two have provided leadership and enthusiasm to a young team. We wish them the best in their future running endeavors.

Girls Cross Country

This year's Girls' Cross-Country consisted of a small but dedicated group. Four of our six runners were running cross-country for the first time. Under these circumstances, the Brentwood girls had an outstanding year.

Highlights:

- Placing 2nd, Freshmen Girls
Dos Pueblos Invitational
- Placing 2nd, Varsity Girls
Glendale Invitational
- Taking 1st, Varsity Girls
Prep League Finals

Girls Varsity Volleyball

Strong and quality efforts, dedication, and team oneness were all key aspects of the 1983 Girls' Varsity volleyball team. After setting several challenging goals in the pre-season, the girls "went to work" and achieved many of them. Along with the work and hard times, this year's team had a lot of fun.

Finishing second in the Delphic League, missing a co-championship by a mere 2 point margin, the varsity moved into the CIF play offs. Led by 5 all-league players, 4 of whom were first team, and 2 all-CIF nominees, the Eagles fought their way to a berth in the quarter finals and an eventual seventh place finish in the division.

Another important factor was the addition of Mari-Jo Grisanti. "Her enthusiasm and drive was contagious and her knowledge of the game made her a fine assistant coach," commented coach Porter. He added, "As hard as we all worked toward developing our systems and drilling them, it was the awesome caring and winning desire of this group that achieved their success."

GIRLS VARSITY

This year's 1983-84 Girl's Varsity Tennis Team, coached by Mrs. Torre, held the number one position in the Delphic League. With a 7-1 league record they advanced to the playoffs, only to be stopped in the second round by arch-rival Louisville. The team consisted of 7 Freshmen, 1 Sophomore, 2 Juniors, and 1 Senior. Chloe Kovner was named MVP, Tiffany Iino received the Coach's Award, and Jackie Kurtz was recognized as the Most Improved. Captain, Tiffany Iino and first doubles team of Jill Rosenthal and Jennifer Lebe were named to the first team all-league, and Chloe was named to the second team all-league as well as the 1983 Delphic League Rookie of the Year.

Girls' Basketball Program

This year for the first time the girls' basketball program fielded both a varsity and a JV team. Last year's varsity, which went to the CIF playoffs, lost three starters. This year's varsity had ten girls, seven of whom were either sophomores or freshmen. Despite a 3-13 record, the varsity played well and at one point in the season lost two games by a total of three points. Joining the two returning starters this year were: Chris Valeo, a freshmen; Arianne Tunney, a sophomore; and Tami Noorzay, a junior. Returning as starters from last year were: Cathy Costello, a sophomore, who for the season averaged seven points and ten rebounds a game, and Tiffany Iino, a senior who was selected second team all-Delphic League last year, who averaged eight points and three steals per game. Other members of the varsity who contributed to the program were: Debbie Axel, a junior; Jennie Neiman, a sophomore, and freshmen Gretchen Cummings, Cay Enns, and Tracie Temple. With only one senior graduating, the varsity team is looking forward to improving their win record next year.

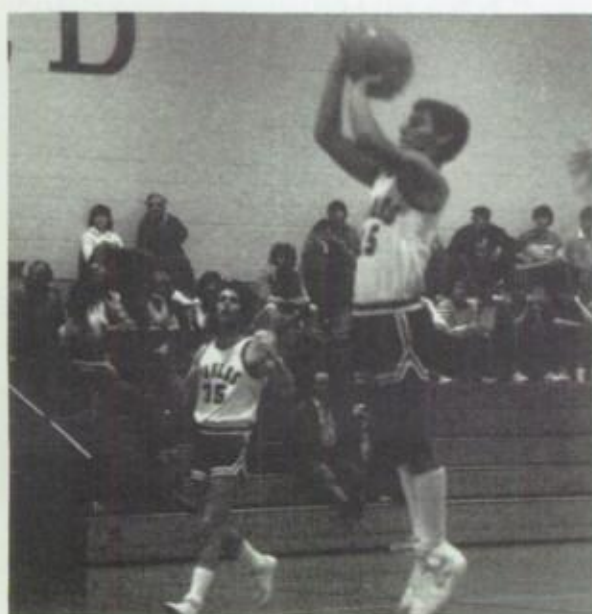

BASKETBALL

Standing (left to right): Coach Ingram, Rich Hodge, Craig Forsyth, David Mushko, Kent Steffes, Mike Karz, Kyle Davis, (team manager) Adam Resnik. Kneeling (left to right): Jeff Kabot, Bobby Benfield, Mark Hamilton, Pat Maloney, Larry Chatman. Missing: Mark Goldstein.

Mark Goldstein provided good leadership and ball-handling ability.

Rich Hodge provided good outside shooting and leadership.

In a rare blend of 7 Sophomores, 2 Juniors, and 3 Seniors, the varsity basketball team, under second year coach, Bob Ingram, re-emerged as a basketball power. The team reversed its record from the previous season to be 14-7 this year. Going against the odds, Brentwood came out with a second place finish in the tough Delphic League. This season's starting line-up has combined the experience and leadership of three capable seniors, Mark Goldstein, Rich Hodge, and Jeff Kabot, with the talented play of two sophomores, Kent Steffes and Craig Forsyth. Along with a strong bench, spearheaded by Mike Karz, this hard-working group has definitely played an exciting brand of basketball. So exciting, in fact, that this season provided many firsts. For the first time in three years, Brentwood ended its exciting season on a disappointing note, losing to Cal Prep 53-51 in all, however, Brentwood beat Crossroads in the most exciting game of the season. Brentwood ended its exciting season on a disappointing note losing to Cal Prep 53-51 in the 1st round of the playoffs. Despite the loss of three senior starters from this year, Brentwood's basketball future looks bright.

The backcourt of Hodge and Goldstein broke all presses and traps thrown at them, and were hawks on defense, too.

Boy's Varsity Basketball Team

Jeff Kabot provided excellent outside shooting and good leadership.

Mike Karz headed a strong bench with good overall play.

Craig Forsyth and Kent Steffes provided excellent scoring and were the rookie surprises of the Delphic League.

Craig Forsyth provided excellent rebounding ability.

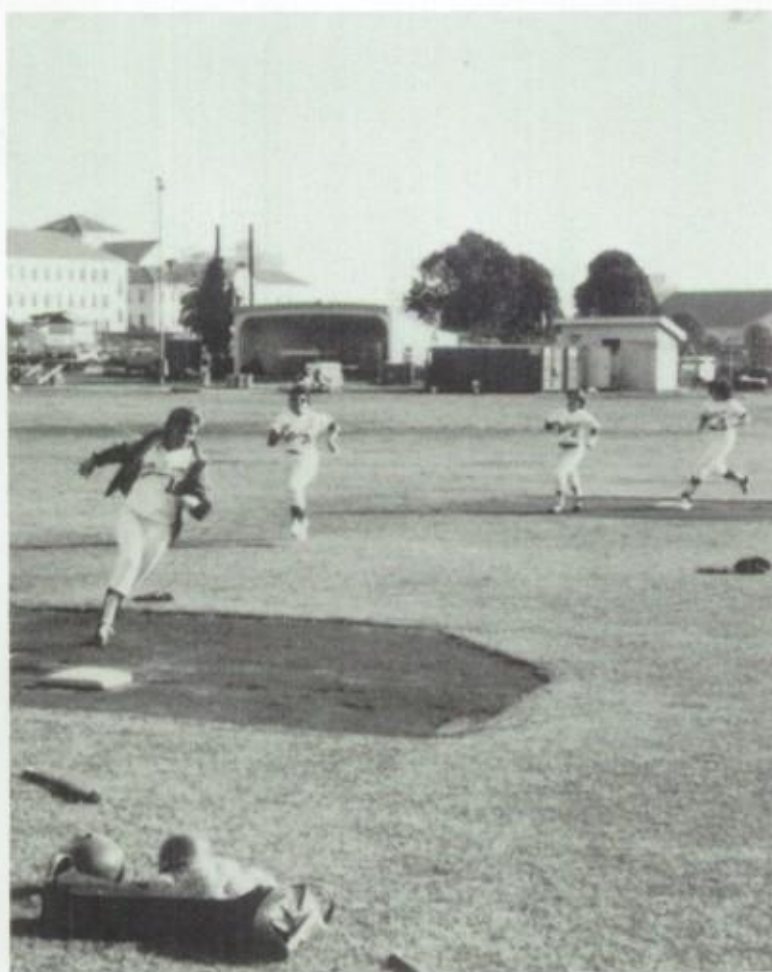

Kent Steffes provided excellent shooting and rebounding.

Varsity Softball Team

An abundance of team spirit, a willingness to work to achieve, and a positive attitude makes this team an outstanding one. Beyond any talent as ballplayers, these girls are fun to work with and a pleasure to know. With mostly "youngsters" on the squad, the future of Girls' Softball at Brentwood looks bright.

Varsity Baseball Team

The 1984 Varsity Baseball Team is young and relatively inexperienced, but constantly improving. Led by Juniors Phil Pecsock, Eric Suddleson, and Kevin Beckmen, the Eagles are in 4th place in Delphic League play at the conclusion of the first round. Having recently shown signs of tremendous improvement, the team expects to move up in the standings and qualify for the C.I.F. Playoffs for the 8th year in a row. Other individuals playing standout baseball are sophomores Mark Hamilton, Steve Joyner, Ian Lennard, and David Mushko. The most optimistic note about this year's team is that it will return intact next season with a solid year of experience under its belt — look for big things from this group in 1985.

Bottom Row (left to right): John Duvall, Ian Lennard, David Maslan, Larry Chapman, Kevin Beckmen.

Brentwood Boys Varsity Soccer

1. Prep League record 7-2-1
2. Overall season record 11-3-1
3. Winner of CIF 1A first round playoff 2-1 versus Valley Christian
4. Winner of CIF 1A second round playoff 2-1 versus Aquinas
5. All Prep League first team
 - a. Phil Pecsok b. Blake McLaughlin
 - c. Jason Morrison
6. All Prep League second team
 - a. Greg Bartholomew b. Matias Valenzuela c. David Leit
7. Phil, Blake, and Jason were all nominated for All CIF
8. Phil Pecsok, goalkeeper, has allowed only 6 goals in 12 league games for a .50 goals against average.
9. Our leading scorer, Jason Morrison, has 19 goals and 4 assists.
10. Brentwood was named co-champions of the Prep League along with Flintridge Prep, and reached the quarterfinals of the CIF 1A division. Brentwood loses 4 seniors from this years squad, and looks to be even stronger next year due to the promising play of several junior varsity players.
11. The Head Coach, Grant Clark, was a key to the teams' success. Grant's heart and ability to motivate helped bring out the best the team had to offer. He was one of the best coaches that Brentwood has ever had, and the entire team wishes that he will return.

Girls Soccer

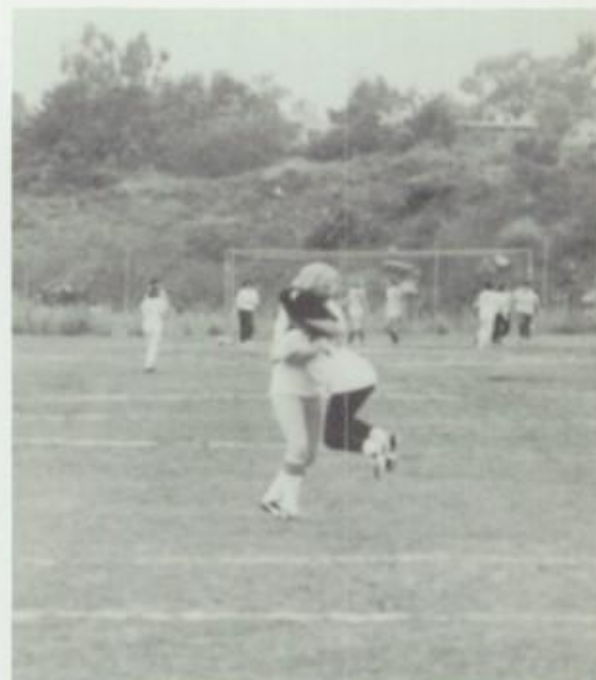

Top row (left to right): M.J., Monique Martin, Jenny Karno, Rebecca Kraus, Diana Frole, Hilary Garland, Erin O'Brien, Lisa Friedman, Duquesne Richmond, Cathy Levin, Kim Pressman, Chloe Kovner, and Cindy. Bottom row: Heather Giannini, Nadine Watt, Michele Rodino, Joy Roe, Nora Linden, and Marinella Roe.

We had quite an exciting season. Our main emphasis was to have fun, and that we did. Our major objective was to score a goal, and when we finally did, at the climax of the season, we won the game. Many thanks to all the players who did a superb job. Special thanks to our goalie, Monique, whose spectacular performance was amazing. And, we the players would like to thank our coaches, Cindy and MJ, for all their help, time, and patience.

“Famous Plays”

- Rebecca — played a great game of Volleyball
- Jenny — directed traffic (“Come on you guys, we’re on the same team”)
- Nadine — kept us entertained with her green and purple shorts
- Lisa — kept busy decking other players
- Duquesne — tripping Erin
- Erin — tripping Duquesne
- Hilary — had a great plan involving the game ball and the flap of her underwear
- Kim — holds the record (knocked down 10 or more players within the first 10 minutes)
- Kathy — scared the other team by growling at them
- Monique — a great season; had to be carried home on a stretcher after the last game
- Diana — coined a new phrase about a Russian player (Don’t ask)
- Chloe — spent the season trying to scuff her cleats
- Michelle — trying to make her feet reach all the way to the clouds
- Marinella — our secret weapon blinded the other team with pink hair
- Joy — running in circles
- Heather — stopping the game to pull up her long-johns
- Nora — played mongo defensive fullback

Both the J.V. and Freshman Cross Country Squads in 1984 proved the future of Brentwood Cross Country is secure. The J.V.'s, led by Chris Haggstrom and Pat Maloney, won their second straight Prep League Championship. The phenomenal Freshman Squad of twelve runners were led by Varsity Letterman, Greg Friedman.

The 1983 Junior Varsity Volleyball season was an exciting one. With an overall record of 12-2, and a Delphic League championship in their hands, the team showed a great deal of character the entire season. With the leadership of Erin O'Brien and Kathy Basilla, the team worked together as a whole to achieve their goals. The team was young but determined, and that will be a definite asset to the future of Brentwood volleyball. Congratulations on a fantastic season!

Boys JV Volleyball

This years Boys JV Volleyball team was one of the best in Brentwood History . . . Facial expressions tell it all.

Girls' JV Basketball

This year Brentwood's first ever girls' junior varsity basketball team hit the boards to let Delphic League competitors know that the Brentwood Basketball program is on the move.

Brentwood's JV team opened its season and history with a victory over a surprised Pacific Christian opponent. Throughout the season, skills and strategy, and play improved as the girls hit their stride with their highest scoring and best played game against a strong Bell-Jeff squad. Proof of improvements shone in a last-game ten point victory over Buckley School who, earlier in the season, foiled the lady Eagles by one and then two points. Eight freshmen and one sophomore made up this neophyte team. Starters included floor captain Cindy Maloney at center, Cheryl Karz and Tamar Galatzan (high point scorer) as forwards. Alternating between point guard and wing positions, Monique Hamada, Allison Heller and sophomore Sophia Silver proved a triple threat to JV opponents. Rounding out the squad were forwards Alison Brower and Carla Davis and guard Mara Senn.

Jody Viscum coached the JV Lady Eagles.

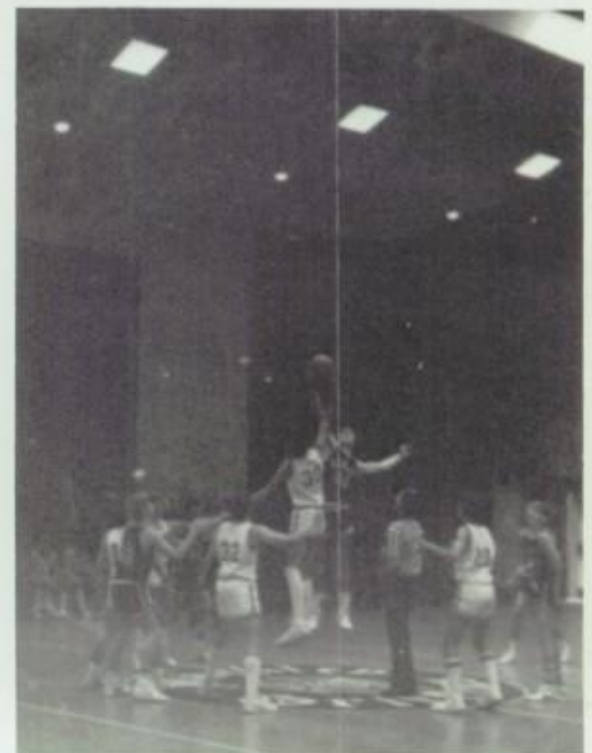

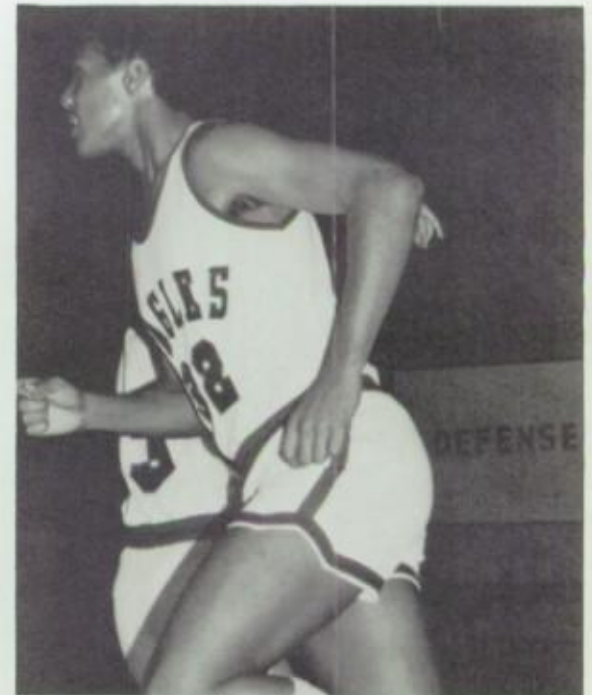

Boys' Junior Varsity Basketball

This year's Jr. Varsity Basketball Team exuded a determined hard working attitude and, because of this attitude, our young Eagles' play improved through-out the season, culminating their year with a well played victory over first place Buckley. The team consisted of tenth graders: Peter Kadlec, Doug Smooke, David Petker, Craig Owen, David Maslon, Jimmy Adelson, and Steven Stakley. Along with these tenth graders were six promising ninth graders: Randy Rognlien, David Vaccaro, Shannon Naulls, Bobby Moses, Tommy Citron, and David Iino.

The best word to describe the 1984 Junior Varsity Soccer squad is gritty. Constant hustle, hard work, and a never-say-die attitude characterized the team; sickness and injury hurt our strength. Our improvement is indicated by an encouraging 2-1-1 finish, with 12 goals scored (double total for the first 8 games). Ted Bush and Ajay Masih provided leadership, while Gary Hewson embodied our "fighting heart". Considering that half the team is freshmen, the soccer outlook at Brentwood appears bright.

SPORTS

Eighth Grade Flag Football Team

Without a doubt, this year's eighth grade flag football team has been the finest Brentwood has ever produced. For the first time since its entry into the CYO league, Brentwood advanced to the semi-final round of the championship tournament. Hard work, dedication, and an overwhelming desire to do their best combined for an exciting, high-scoring offense and suffocating defense. Congratulations!

Eighth Grade Basketball

This team, much like the 8th grade football team is in the process of rewriting lower school boy's athletic accomplishments. After having gone undefeated in league play, Brentwood rolled up in impressive record in the CYO Play-offs. The talent on this years team is so awesome that Coach Jesson feels many of his players are ready to become the first Basketball players to jump from Jr. High straight to the NBA. The team went undefeated and wound up champions of Los Angeles and Ventura County.

Seventh Grade Flag Football

The seventh grade football team was characterized by its hard work and desire to keep improving. Our 2-2 record was quite respectable, as sometimes we played teams with 8th graders. Outstanding play from Derek Agnew, Jason Lublin, Derek Woodard, Jason Edwards, and Kevin Brent were highlights of the season.

Lower School Girls' Volleyball Team

The Lil' Eagles Volleyball Team had a winning season with a record of 6-4, having lost only to the two teams that finished second and fourth in CYO. A third place finish in the San Gabriel Valley Tournament established the team amongst the top in the area. Led by the captain, Katie Olsen, the starters were Penny Stone, Megan Forsyth, Nicole Hartnett, Lisa Podosin, and Christen Tellefson. Other players were Teak Dyer, Jenny Kelly, Petra Pavlovitz, Stacie Feldman, Amy Rubinroit, and Lorraine Kraus.

Lower School Swimming Team

The Little Eagles Swim Team measures its successes in individual improvement rather than in team wins. Competing against large schools makes it impossible to score enough points for a team victory, but several individuals qualified for the League Championships and earned medals. Earning medals were Megan Forsyth in the breastroke and freestyle, Vanessa Atkins in the breaststroke, Betsy Fink in the butterfly, Petra Pavlovits in the breaststroke, and the freestyle relay team.

Starting at the back going left to right: Vanessa Atkins, Lori Raffa, K.C. Comerford, Jenny Friedman, Allie Jones, Liz Monroe, Tavin Marin, Betsy Fink, Laurie Williams, Tana Senn, Danielle Weiss, Kelly Maney (red shirt), Nicole Hartnett, Megan Forsyth, Petra Pavlovits, Coach Hooker.

Our best ever Lil' Eagles basketball team went to CYO playoffs with a 14-0 record. Although beaten in the second round of playoffs, the team is proud of its undefeated League Season against strong teams. Led by captain — Amy Rubinroit — the starters included Megan Forsyth, Nicole Hartnett, Petra Pavlovits and Jennifer Morrow.

Girls' Lower School Soccer Team

The little Eagles Soccer team, coached by Joe Hartnett, had its first year of competition this year. As no other schools in the area have Lower School soccer teams, our team had to compete against club all-star teams. The new Varsity Girls' Soccer team can look forward to some outstanding additions from the Freshman class next year.

Model United Nations

The Model United Nations program is a simulation of the actual world organization based in New York City. In the classroom, our object is to prepare ourselves for the MUN program that is held annually in March at the University of California, Riverside. This program attracts eleven-hundred students from high schools in Southern California and Arizona. Each school represents one or more member nation in the UN and each delegate is responsible to follow as closely as possible the policies of his or her respective country. Students debate a large number of issues — the situation in the Middle East and the peaceful uses of outer space, for example. The student delegates have three days to negotiate and vote on resolutions related to those issues. This year, because of the large participation in our program, Bentwood School represented Australia, Pakistan, and Sweden.

Amaranth, Brentwood's literary magazine, is named after a mythical flower that never fades or dies. The magazine keeps alive the creative spirit of our student body and ensures that our best artistic and literary talent will continue to flourish.

Amaranth grew in its second year. The sales were much higher and the support was phenomenal. Amaranth adopted a subscription rate which had favorable results. The staff included people from all grades and thus reduced last year's monopoly by the senior A.P. English class. There were two co-editors-in-chief, Daniela Pacher and Warren Kolodny, who worked under faculty advisor Mrs. Judith O'Hanlon. Daniela and Warren helped run the meetings, evaluated the submissions, and did everything they could to help promote the magazine. Arika Goldschmid was the art editor, Carmen Richardson was the poetry editor, and Cathryn Starr was the prose editor. Steve Ulene, Mrs. Smith, and Chris Haggstrom were essential to the publication in their typing and printing of the material. The efforts of the editors and typists and the talent and courage of artists were greatly appreciated in the continuation of Brentwoods source of culture, Amaranth.

The 1983-84 yearbook staff was made up of many quite varied individuals. Each brought a unique set of talents to the yearbook effort and each fulfilled a distinct, but essential, role in putting this book together. What ties all their seperate contributions together into one united whole is the committment shared by all the staff members to produce a memorable yearbook which the Brentwood School community can enjoy and take pride in. We want 1983-84 to be a year you'll never forget.

A.F.S. Activity

A.F.S. International is a non-profit organization established to promote better understanding among people throughout the world and to foster the cause of world peace through student to family exchange programs. A.F.S. is unique as it strives to match the interests and characteristics of students and families so that the stay is successful for both. Students may also apply for the American abroad school year program, the summer program and language study programs in French, German, Spanish, Portuguese and Hebrew for which they may earn college credit.

Lower School Newspaper Activity

The lower school newspaper, "The Lower School Times," was one of the largest activities at Brentwood. Unlike the upper school newspaper which meets as a class, the lower school paper was done by the students during activity periods and on their own time. Staffed by the seventh and eighth graders, the publication, which came out once a month, kept its "eye" on the key activities of the lower school and some whole school events. Emphasis was on sports, class events, cultural concerns, and various special features such as polls and interviews. The staff turned out a quality paper and reported well the events of "lower school life."

Debate

Run by USC student David Damus, this activity is for the purpose of forming a debate team for Brentwood as part of the Western Bay Forensics League. The team would prepare for debate matches against other private schools in the area, primarily in the Lincoln-Douglass debate style.

German Club

The purpose of the German Club is to provide an enjoyable and relaxed setting for all German students to practice speaking German. The club is open to German students from all four levels (German I, II, III, IV) and it meets on Wednesdays during lunch. Various topics are discussed, German songs are played, and German food is served. A tasty activity.

The Brentwood Flyer newspaper staff consists of eleven senior editors in the Journalism class who plan, write, lay out, and edit the school newspaper. Some members of the class belong to the Quill and Scroll Society, a national organization of competitive high school journalists. There are also three talented juniors on the staff, waiting to take the reins next year.

COMPUTER ACTIVITY

Ms. Bernson: Brentwood's Computer Whiz

This year, Brentwood's new Computer Center opened. It has 15 IBM-PC's and 10 Apple computers. Although the classroom and the adjacent lab are always busy with students doing their school work, time was set aside during Activities period for those whose schedules prohibited them from taking a formal computer course.

Computer activity period was a fun hour when any student was free to come into the computer center and use one of our 27 machines. Students worked on their own programs. Some were very sophisticated graphics designs and others made up computer adventures games. For those who wanted to relax and have fun with commercial software, the computer activity provided them with a range of educational games — Snooper Troops being the most popular — and more formal software, which helped students learn BASIC programming on their own and helped them to improve their typing skills. The hour was sponsored by Ms. Bernson, Ms. Viscum, Mrs. Torre and Mrs. Smith.

FAREWELL AND

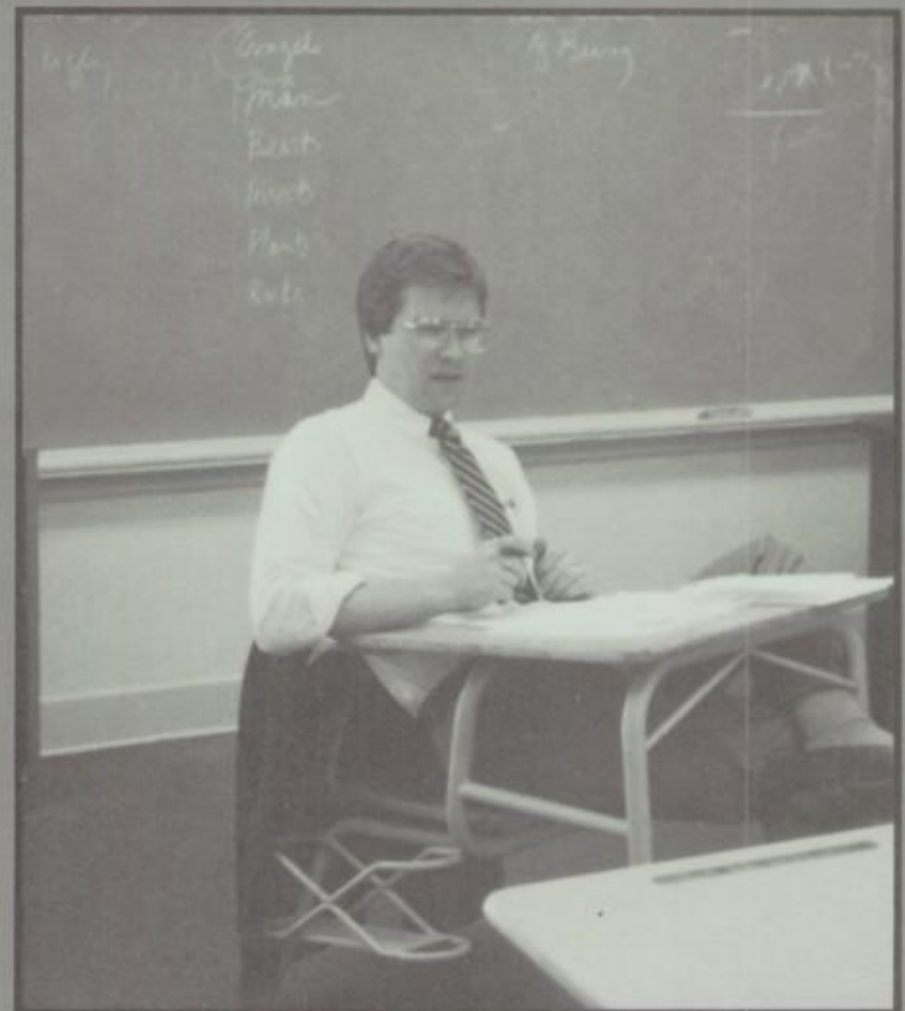

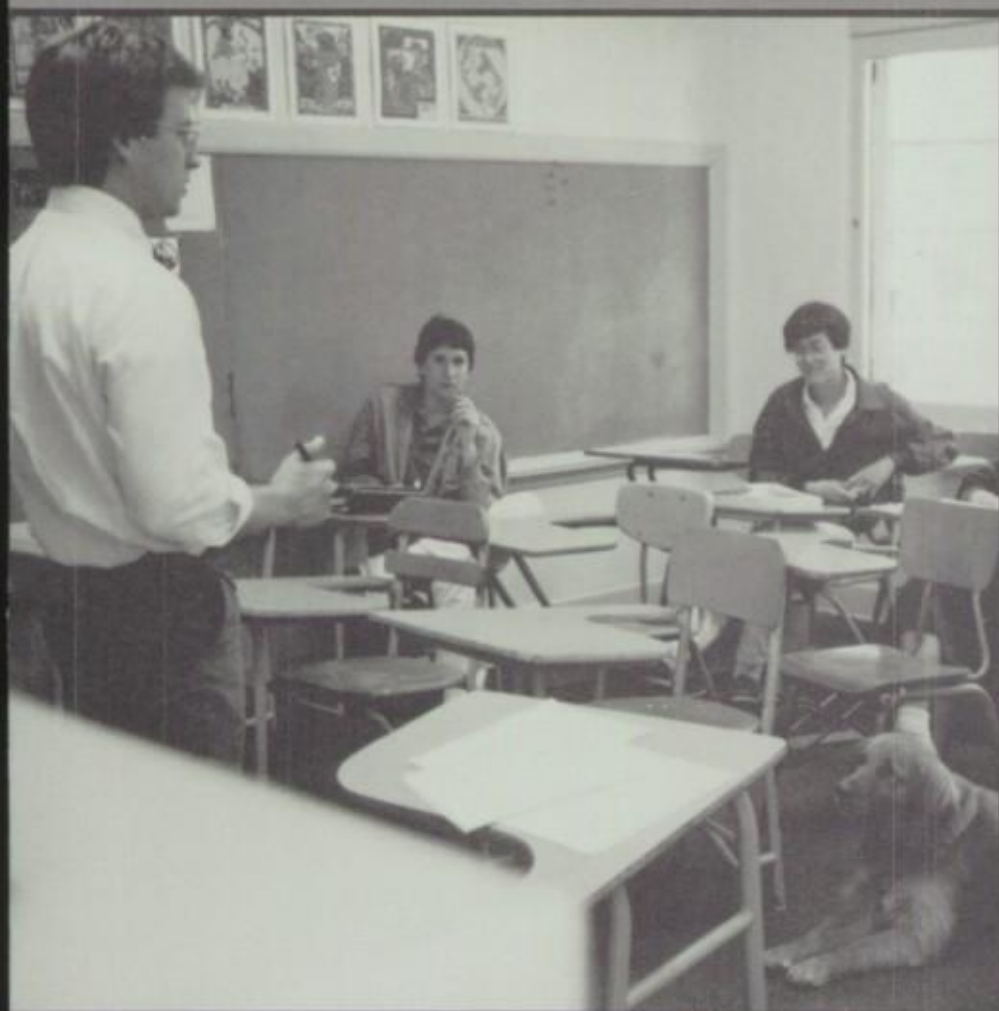

Frank Mazzi has been an educator "par excellence" for eleven years at Brentwood. In that time, Dr. Mazzi has dedicated himself to helping others explore the full range of their own and the world's potentialities. In demanding of himself and the individuals he encounters the best in every endeavor, Dr. Mazzi has succeeded in creating an environment in his classroom and around the campus which is fertile for creativity, exploration, discovery, expression, and all that allows for human growth. In that same spirit, he now takes on the challenge of running for political office, where success will allow him to help and serve an even broader population than he does now. We wish him well in the campaign; the community's gain will be Brentwood's loss. On your departure, we applaud your many great accomplishments and contributions to the Brentwood School community.

GOOD LUCK

All too rarely does one encounter a man of integrity, sincerity, humanity, compassion, concern, humility, and humor. One such man, Paul Gibson, has been an essential part of the Bentwood School since 1977. His positive and significant contributions to the school have helped foster our recent expansion and will continue to be felt as the school strives for full growth. In recognition of his dedication to bettering all our lives, we take a moment now to utter a sincere "thank you", express wishes for a prosperous future, and offer a tearful farewell to Paul Gibson and his lovely family.

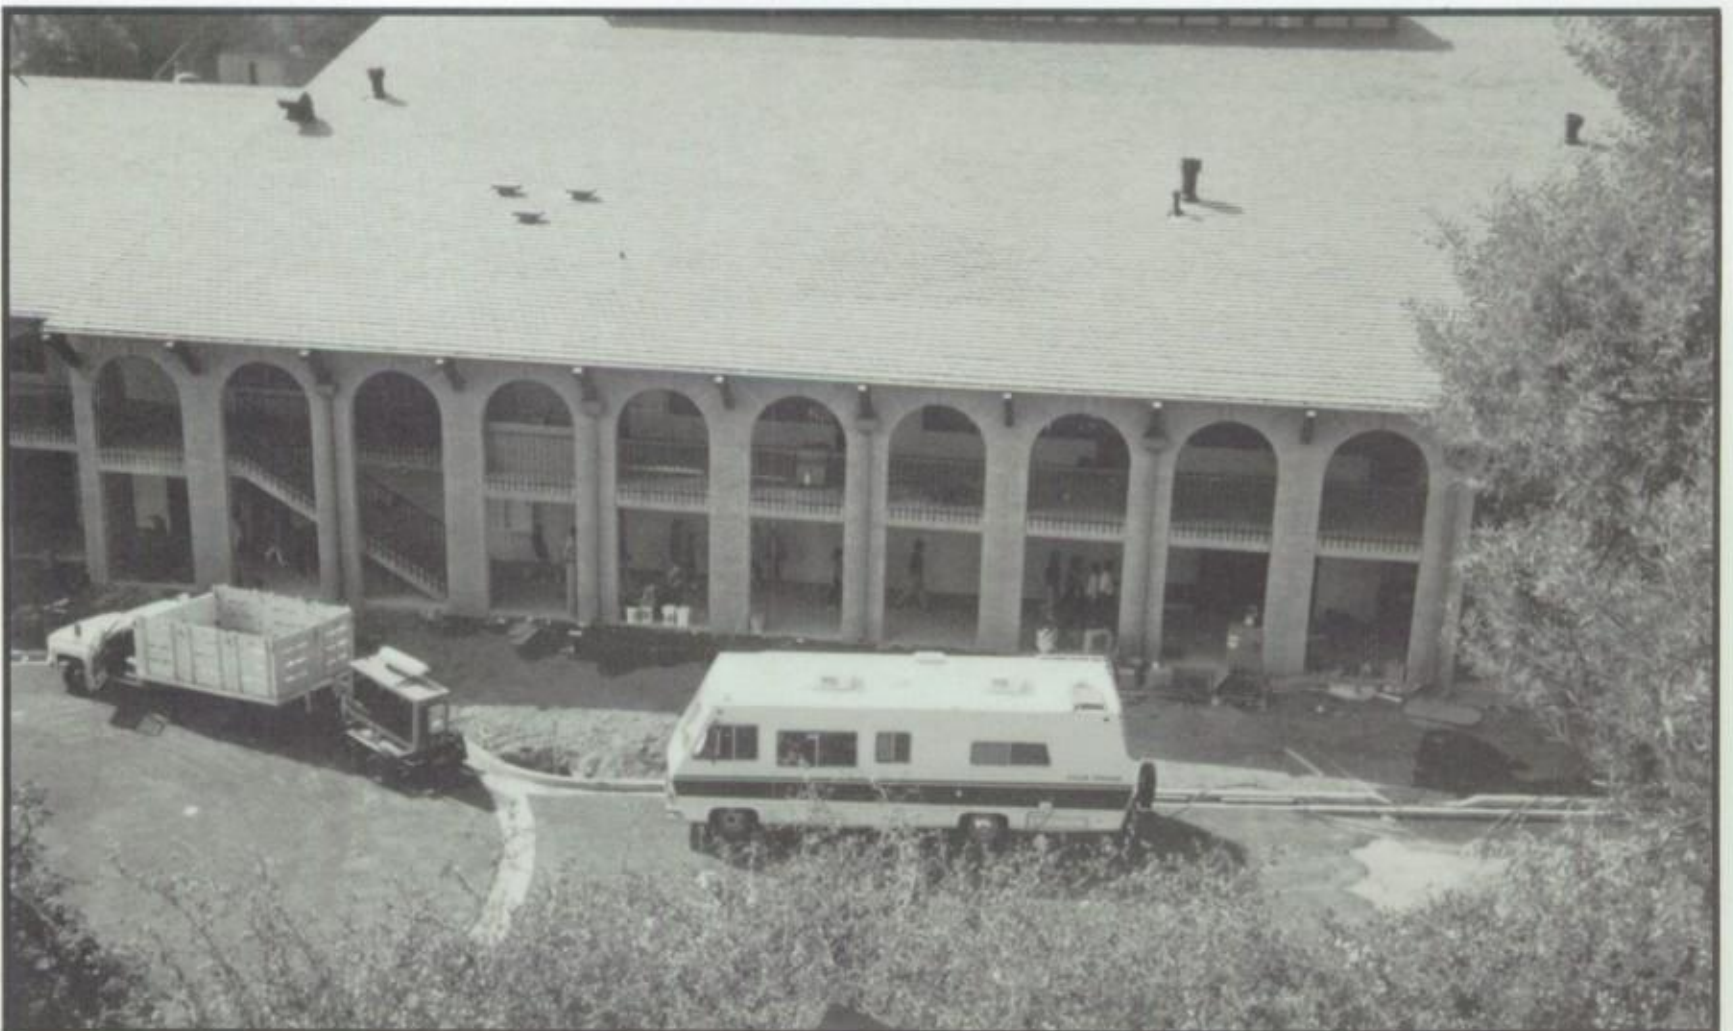

Even Cookie, a campus fixture and school pet, as well as Mr. Gibson's hound, listens when Mr. Gibson speaks.

BRENTWOOD SCHOOL PARENTS' ASSOCIATION

The Brentwood School Parents' Association is a group of parents committed to the support of Brentwood School. We help the school with tour guides, orientation luncheons, and refreshments for the Open House. Grade level coffees are also given to keep the parents informed about school activities. Assistance is provided for the individual grades with their respective functions such as field trips, fund raisers, parties, the Junior-Senior Ring Ceremony, the Prom and, most importantly, Graduation.

At the beginning of the year we host a Parent Faculty Reception which is always well attended. In December we hold a general meeting to which invitations are sent to every parent, and in February we extend invitations to launch our upcoming fund raiser — the free drawing on March 2nd at our Brentwood School Benefit Olympiad which also features a dinner and live auction. The proceeds from these events will be donated to our academic enrichment programs and to the building fund. For a change of pace, a Tennis Tournament-luncheon is held for fun and relaxation.

At the end of the school year a Thank-You luncheon is given to our hard working faculty. We value their dedication. The Parents' Association also appreciates and encourages all the support the families of Brentwood School give to enrich our school.

Human Anatomy class — Bob: Good luck in surgery, just don't split any Aortas. Dimitry: I cannot say you've been boring, that's for sure. You've taught all of us how to develop great patience, especially when we decided not to wire your mouth, due to your excessive vocal releases. Levey: You and your "B.S." "Oh, no, I did terrible on the test," (right before you get a B on the exam!) Food breaks were great, after all we need our energy in that class. Megan: Too much caffeine today? Stuttering (b-b-b-but). I know, he's (just a bit) neurotic, but he's a great actor and politician (Morey, Moroh, Wanna drink, I don't wanna drink!) Thanks Mr. Krause, you've made this class one of my favorites. Thanx to you 5. Have a good life, blah, blah, and even more.

Dear Brentwood Parents and Friends —

The '84 Yearbook Committee is extremely grateful for your financial support this past year. I, in turn, wish to thank my helpful, loyal co-chairpersons, Megan Haller and Mark Goldstein, and our photographers Andy Bilson and Henry Kim. I have known them all since they were in Lower School and am proud to see how they have grown into such fine young adults.

Parents — please support us in '85! We really need your help.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Roslyn Foier
